Bike Rodeo Promotes Safety

Over 50 children were inspired to have fun and be safe at a bike rodeo sponsored by the Fairfax County Police Department and Trails for Youth on Saturday, September 25th. Clermont Elementary School hosted the event where Trails for Youth instructed students how to properly ride a bike and Performance Bicycle gave bicycle safety checks.

Children became more comfortable on their bikes as they navigated cones and obstacles in their paths. Police officers from the Franconia Station Neighborhood Patrol Unit provided encouragement to many of the children as they honed their skills.

Attendees included Colonel David Rohrer, Chief of the Fairfax County Police Department, and the family of 9-year-old Rebecca Johns. Rebecca died on August 30, 2010 after sustaining injuries in a vehicle crash while riding her bicycle.
