Information Bulletin: Edison High School Seatbelt Campaign

Edison High School: Click it or Ticket Awareness

Edison High School students and parents have been encouraged to wear seatbelts to and from school. School Resource Officer (SRO) Justin Dellow handed out seatbelt pamphlets to drivers since the beginning of the school year. School administrators made announcements and posted warnings on their website about seatbelt enforcement.

Auxiliary Police Officers surveyed several hundred vehicles entering the school parking lot at three entrances between 6:45 a.m. and 7:30 a.m. Officers observed 41 people without seatbelts. On Tuesday, November 9, officers conducted targeted enforcement of the seatbelt law at the Edison Drive entrance. Sixteen tickets were issued for seatbelt offenses.
