Information Bulletin: Pizza Delivery Robberies

Two Robberies in Lorton

Two pizza delivery men were robbed in the Lorton area over the past few days. The first robbery took place on Friday, December 10 around 8:30 p.m. in the 8900 block of Waldren Way. A man approached a 34-year-old Fairfax man was approached from behind and threatened him with a knife. The suspect took cash and fled on foot. The victim was not injured.

The second robbery was on Monday, December 13 around 6:45 p.m. in the 9100 block of Ashland Woods Lane. A 38-year-old man was attempting to deliver a pizza when two men grabbed him. They fled on foot after taking the victim's wallet, keys and cash. The victim received minor injuries from the attack.

The lone suspect for the robbery on Waldren Way was described as black approximately 5 feet 10 inches tall, weighing about 160 pounds. He was wearing a tan, hooded, sweatshirt.

The suspects on Ashland Woods Lane were described as black between 15 and 21 years old. Both were approximately 6 feet tall and 170 pounds. One of them was armed with a knife.

Detectives are continuing their investigation. There is no reason to believe these two cases are linked together at this time. Police ask that you remain vigilant in your neighborhoods and call if you see any suspicious activity.
