Crisis Management in Schools: More than an “active shooter” crisis.

Crisis management in schools refers to the processes, responses and procedures used by a school to address incidents that may pose a hazard or disruption to the facility or its occupants. This seminar takes an all-hazards approach to crisis management planning for private schools in Fairfax County. Additionally, Fairfax County Police Department will be speaking on crisis response and safety principles. If you are a private school official, safety officer, or emergency planner for private schools in Fairfax County, this seminar will help identify key principles for you to consider when developing your school crisis management plan. Bring your questions and concerns.

- Lt. Col. Edwin Roessler Jr, Fairfax County Police Department
- Mr. Gary Ball, Fairfax County Public Schools Security Specialist
- Captain Bruce Ferguson, Fairfax County Police Department
- Lt. Ron Manzo, Fairfax County Police Department
- Bruce A. McFarlane Sr., OEM Planning Supervisor
