

Help the Reston District Station Lend a Helping Hand this Holiday Season to Victims of Domestic Violence in Fairfax County

Artemis House, which is open 24 hours a day, offers safe, confidential, emergency, and short-term residential services and supportive counseling to those who are fleeing physical violence from an intimate partner. The Reston District Station has partnered with the Artemis House to collect emergency supplies for domestic violence victims in Fairfax County.

The Artemis House is in need of these emergency supplies:

Food – non- perishable

Ready-to-eat canned meats, fish, fruits, vegetables, beans and soups

Protein or fruit bars

Dry cereal or granola

Peanut butter and nuts

Dried fruit

Crackers

Canned juices

Bottled water

Canned or jarred baby food

Baby formula

Other non-perishable items

Tools and Supplies

Flashlight w/ extra batteries

Portable radio

Manual can opener

Disposable diapers

Paper plates, cups, utensils

Personal hygiene items (toothbrush, toothpaste, comb, feminine products)

Medical and Health Emergency Supplies

Medicines for fever (acetaminophen or Ibuprofen)

Cough medicines

Infant/baby Tylenol and ibuprofen

Thermometer

Anti-diarrheal medication

Sterile gauze pads (3 x 3 and 4 x 4)

Cohesive bandage

Germicidal hand wipes

Alcohol based hand sanitizer

Antiseptic wipes

Anti-bacterial ointment

Cold pack

Scissors (small, personal)

Vitamins

Fluids with electrolytes

Cleansing agent/soap

Drop of your donations to the Reston District Station 12000 Bowman Town Drive, Reston, VA. If you have any questions, please contact the Reston Crime Prevention Office at 703-478-0799 or restoncpo@fairfaxcounty.gov

