

Computer Learning Centers Partnership

Computer Learning Centers Partnership (CLCP) is a national award-winning partnership. CLCP's mission is to provide open access to technology and training. The goal is to bring equity to lower-income families in order to increase literacy. The centers are open to children from kindergarten through high school. Parents of children enrolled in the program are also eligible to participate.

What We Have to Offer

- A full-range program consisting of technology instruction, homework assistance, and enrichment activities
- Community-service projects
- Daily snack
- Peace Corps World Wise Schools program
- Fairfax County Technology Expo
- Emerging Scholars program

Some CLCP Facts

- CLCP was recognized as a national after-school model.
- There were over 69,412 visits to fifteen CLCP centers last year.
- Of those reporting their income, 21% make less than $17,000 per year.
- A $166,000 21st Century grant was used to support extended learning through CLCP.
- The Homework Assistance program is staffed by Fairfax County teachers. In addition to enhanced skills, attendees show improved levels of school attendance.
- Comcast and Cox Communications donate internet service at most centers.
