Let's go to the DRIVE-IN!

If you remember taking your date or the whole family, kids and all, to a drive-in movie, here's a chance to relive the good old days. And if you're a youngster who missed the drive-in era, it's an opportunity to sample this old fashioned fun. Come to Sully District and watch movies on the big screen from the comfort of your car. (If you want a canopy of stars overhead, there will be a designated seating area in front of the screen.)

Saturday, August 6 E.T.

E.T. celebrates its 20th anniversary with a theatrical re-release that includes new scenes and special effects as well as deleted scenes. Steven Spielberg's 1982 smash hit tells the heartwarming story of the special bond 10-year-old Elliot forges with an alien he names E.T. The adventures they share as Elliot tries to hide his new friend and E.T. tries to get back to his planet ("E.T. phone home!") provide plenty of action, laughter and tears.

Saturday, August 13 Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban

Harry, Ron and Hermione return to for their third year to Hogwart's School of Witchcraft and Wizardry. An escaped prisoner named Sirius Black seems to pose a threat to Harry but is he really a foe... or a friend. The answer provides a shocking revelation about what happened 12 years ago when Harry got his famous scar!

Saturday, August 20 Shrek 2

In this knockabout comic sequel to the animated smash hit Shrek, the cuddly ogre (Mike Myers) and his lady love Fiona (Cameron Diaz) return to her homeland to tell her parents (John Cleese, Julie Andrews) the good news about their marriage. But Prince Charming (Rupert Everett) is far from happy and has a few things to say about the new union. Other characters include the Fairy Godmother (Jennifer Saunders) and Puss-in-Boots (Antonio Banderas).

Saturday, August 27 GHOSTBUSTERS

Unemployed parapsychologists set themselves up as "Ghostbusters" to rid New York of evil monstrous apparitions that are taking over the city. Sigourney Weaver as cellist Dana Barrett. Strange happenings in her apartment lead the ghostbusting team into the clutches of a poltergeist.
