

2022 Police Civilian Review Panel Annual Report

Dirck A. Hargraves, Immediate Past Panel Chairman

August 1, 2023

The Panel's Purpose, Structure, and Means

- Purpose: Enhance legitimacy and trust between the FCPD and the community
- Means:
 - Review investigations
 - Complete, thorough, accurate, impartial, and objective
 - Provide independent avenue for making a complaint against the police
 - Make recommendations regarding policies and practices
 - Consider whether “complete, thorough, accurate, impartial, objective”

2022 Annual Report Overview

- 24 Initial Complaints were brought before the Panel
- Administratively, the year for the Panel was notable for its transition of Panel Members assuming different roles and cycling off the Panel. Immediate past Chair Jimmy Bierman resigned per Bylaws and county policy upon announcing his candidacy for public office per Bylaws and county policy.
- Vice Chair Dirck Hargraves assumed the Chairmanship and Panel Member Todd Cranford was nominated and elected to serve as Vice Chair
- Panel extremely grateful for the Board of Supervisor's approval and County's hiring of an Executive Director and Management Analyst Sanjida Lisa to assist the Panel with the review of investigative files, writing of Review Reports, corresponding with Complainants, the FCPD, the Board of Supervisors and meeting with Community Stakeholders.
- Additionally, PCRIP added the law firm of Bynum & Jenkins as its legal counsel
