The Braddock Beacon

September 2020 Edition

Dear Neighbor,

Back in May, the Braddock District stepped up in a big way. When we put out the word that many of our neighbors were struggling with food insecurity due to the economic disruption caused by the pandemic, hundreds of you turned out to our Braddock District Stuff the Bus food drive and helped us collect 15,685.2 pounds of food to help our friends at ECHO support local families during a difficult time. But now we need to do it again.

While we have suppressed the virus here in Fairfax, we're far from out of the woods, thousands in our community are still struggling, and local food pantries are running low. That's why we have planned another Stuff the Bus food drive across the county. On Saturday, September 12 and Saturday, September 26, Fastran buses will be parked at 21 locations from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. to collect food donations. In the Braddock District, we'll be at the following locations.

- Braddock District Office (9002 Burke Lake Rd. Burke, VA)
- Oaks Community Center (5708 Oak Leather Dr. Burke, VA)
- Fairfax County Government Center (12000 Government Center Parkway Fairfax, VA)

Visit the Stuff the Bus website to see the full list of locations and the list of most requested items. We set a very high bar in May, but I'm confident we can come together again and do even more!

The Board of Supervisors will meet on September 15 and September 29. We will also hold committee meetings on September 22. Meeting agendas and materials will be available here.

On a sad note, long-time Braddock community leader Chet McLaren passed away recently at the age of 98. I didn't have the pleasure of knowing Chet, so I thought I would share a few words from former Braddock District Supervisor and Chairman Sharon Bulova.

Chet McLaren served on the Fairfax County Park Authority during its early years, helping it grow into the premier organization it is today. He was a dedicated environmentalist, serving on several County advisory boards. I worked with Chet most closely in his work with the North Springfield Civic Association, the Braddock District Council, my Braddock Land Use Committee and in his capacity as MC at Braddock Nights Concerts in the Parks at Lake Accotink Park, where he and his wife Fran were a formidable team. Chet set the example for A Life Well Lived.

Yours in service,

Supervisor James Walkinshaw

5 Reasons to Stuff the Bus Virtually

To donate to the Stuff the Bus food drive, visit <http://bit.ly/FfxStufftheBus>.

3 Fresh Food
Canned and dry food are a vital part of food pantries, but a healthy diet also requires foods such as fresh fruit and vegetables, low-fat dairy products and lean proteins – items that can't be collected through food drives.

1 More Meals
nonprofits can turn a donated dollar into more meals by purchasing food in bulk or through special discounts from retailers.

4 Less Labor
Nonprofits often rely on the work of volunteers to sort and shelve donations. The COVID-19 virus has greatly impacted volunteers' ability to serve, especially older adults or those with pre-existing conditions.

2 Feeding Diverse Communities
Monetary donations allow pantries to purchase culturally appropriate foods, which better meets the needs of the diverse communities they serve.

5 Hunger Never Takes a Break
Having cash on hand helps food pantries keep their shelves stocked during times of the year when donations drop off.

Citizen of the Month

This month's Braddock District Citizen of the Month is Kelley Traver. Kelley, a Kings Park West resident, works with the Fairfax County Department of Family Services Foster Care and Adoption Department, the agency tasked with finding permanent homes for children in care through reunification. She was recently recognized by the American Bar Association as a Reunification hero, a prestigious national award for individuals passionate about helping families stick together. For the last 30 years, Kelley has devoted her career to the foster children and families who live in Fairfax County and has strived to ensure all children and families can remain together.

According to a recent article released by the Department of Family Services, "Kelley wholeheartedly believes that every child should have a relationship with their parents, and that while children may need to spend time in foster care, they don't have to grow up in foster care."

People like Kelley Traver go above and beyond every day to improve the lives of struggling community members. On behalf of the Braddock District, thank you for your years of commitment to ensuring children have a safe and healthy lifestyle, Kelley.

Message from Clerk John T. Frey of the Fairfax Circuit Court

The Fairfax Circuit Court Clerk's office has been open for business throughout the pandemic. We have installed glass partitions at our public counters, made hand sanitizers available to staff and the public, instituted temperature checks at the entrances to the courthouse, and implemented other safety precautions.

Marriage license issuance and probate appointments are now exclusively conducted using WebEx for a virtual customer experience. Electronic recording has offered buyers and sellers an uninterrupted summer buying season! We also offer a WebEx Concealed Handgun Permit application process, using the same secure technology for those who prefer doing court business from home. In other words, despite the pandemic, you are still able to easily obtain a marriage license, probate a loved one's estate, or buy, sell, or refinance real estate in Fairfax County.

While most civil and criminal cases, including all jury trials, have been suspended by the Virginia Supreme Court during the pandemic, the Fairfax Circuit Court Judges have been using WebEx to conduct remote hearings on urgent matters, such as emergency custody matters and protective orders.

The Judges have recently expanded remote hearings to include routine civil motions and important criminal pre-trial matters.

A plan is in place for Virginia courts to assess when, and how, it will be safe to resume full operations, including jury trials.

Each fall, approximately 60,000 jury questionnaires are sent out to Fairfax County and Fairfax City residents. The jury questionnaires help citizen jury commissioners determine who will be eligible for jury duty in 2021. Questionnaires were sent out over the last couple weeks. If you received a questionnaire, please complete the questionnaire, and return it to the Clerk's office. For your convenience, you may complete the questionnaire on-line. Receiving a questionnaire does not mean you will be automatically called upon to serve as a juror next year.

Thank you, Supervisor Walkinshaw, for providing me with this opportunity to share how the Fairfax Circuit Court Clerk's office is adapting to the pandemic to serve the residents of Fairfax County and the City of Fairfax.

John T. Frey, Clerk Fairfax Circuit Court

Partial Closure of Government Center Parkway

Beginning September 4, a short segment of one eastbound lane of Government Center Parkway will be temporarily closed for dedicated pedestrian and bicyclist use. This temporary closure provides Fairfax County residents another improved and safer option for outdoor recreation while maintaining social distancing practices during the ongoing coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. The duration of the closure will depend on the rate of continued reopening following the reductions of COVID-19 related restrictions.

As seen below, the eastbound right-turn lane of the Government Center Parkway will be closed between a driveway past Ridge Top Road and a driveway prior to Waples Mill Road. The closure creates a connection to existing sidewalks on both ends along Government Center Parkway bridging a gap where no sidewalk currently exists.

September is Emergency Preparedness Month – Be Disaster Ready

Virginia State Corporation Insurance Commissioner Scott White encourages all Virginians to be prepared for storms and natural disasters. Make sure your home, business, and/or automobile are properly insured and know how to file an insurance claim in the event of property damage. The best time to prepare for a natural disaster is before a storm strikes.

Before the Storm

- Create a detailed inventory of your belongings. Include photos and receipts of your property purchases if you have them. You can use the Inventory Checklist as a guide.
- Review your insurance policy, and contact your insurance company if you have any questions about your coverage. You can find your insurance company's phone number using our Company Lookup.
- Store your home inventory checklist and insurance policy information in a secure, waterproof location.
- Most homeowner's and renter's insurance policies do not cover losses due to flooding. Talk with your insurance agent about flood insurance, or visit the National Flood Insurance Program website.

After the Storm

- If your home or other insured property was damaged during a storm, contact your insurance company or agent as soon as possible.
- Take photos of your damaged property once it is safe to do so.
- Save the receipts of any emergency repairs that are needed to prevent your property from becoming further damaged.
- If you feel you are treated unfairly, please contact the Commissioner's Property & Casualty Consumer Services team at (804) 371-9185, or file a complaint.

Message from Friends of Lake Accotink (FLAP) on Meghan Walker's Award

Meghan has served the community and Friends of Lake Accotink Park for well over a decade as a steadfast, committed environmental volunteer. Meghan has held many positions within the Friends of Lake Accotink Park (FLAP) including President, Treasurer, and Communications Director; leading, planning, and participating in numerous impactful projects to the community, watershed, and grounds of Lake Accotink Park. The time and effort necessary in any volunteer organization for a President, Treasurer, or Communications Director to plan, organize, coordinate, monitor and track, direct, schedule, re-schedule, integrate, provide feedback, and capture lessons learned for any one of these tasks can be significant. Considering she and a myriad of FLAP volunteers accomplished so many general advocacy, cultural, and environmental support tasks is commendable, noteworthy, and truly deserving of recognition. And during this time she also served as the Treasurer of the Danbury Forrest Community Association (DFCA) – no small feat in and of itself – where she helped to secure DFCA approval of an easement for the Park Authority to construct a switchback trail that spanned both DFCA and FCPA property to rectify an unsafe trail access to Lake Accotink Park. She spoke on behalf of the community association at the ribbon-cutting ceremony attended by both Chairman Sharon Bulova and Supervisor John Cook. She has volunteered and judged cardboard boats and dog costumes and many other activities for Park Authority events. She has provided significant input to the master plan process; and she has been a substitute host/master of ceremonies during the Park Authority's Summer Entertainment Series Braddock Nights at Lake Accotink Park. Meghan will be missed as a FLAP Board member, but rest assured she will continue to serve her community and participate in FLAP projects and activities. Thank you, Meghan, from the FLAP Board.

Commuter Parking Garage and Transit Center Proposed at Government Center Parkway and Monument Drive

Fairfax County's Building Design and Construction Division has proposed constructing a commuter parking garage and transit center on county-owned land located at the intersection of Government Center Parkway and Monument Drive, adjacent to the HOV exit from I-66. The site currently contains approximately 300 surface parking spaces on the side next to Fairfax Corner and a vacant undeveloped parcel on the west. This facility would provide parking for a new express lane commuter bus service to DC and Arlington that will be implemented as part of Transform I-66. It would also serve carpooling commuters.

The proposed parking garage would have an open first floor area for slug lines (ADHOC casual carpooling) and seven levels of parking with 820 parking spaces. It would also house a Connector Store, restrooms for bus drivers, a Capital Bikeshare facility, secure bicycle storage, and bike racks. Proposal for Second Phase of Kenilworth Development

Earlier this year, Christopher Land, LLC filed a rezoning application for approximately 4.43 acres of land located just south of the Kenilworth community at Caprino Court and Braddock Road. This property is currently developed with one single-family home built in 1955 that will continue to be occupied by the current owner and would be included in a subsequent phase of the project. The applicant is requesting to rezone this land from the R-1 District to the PDH-3 District to build 12 single-family detached dwelling units at a density of 2.71 dwelling units per acre. Nine houses would be constructed in phase one, and an additional three houses would be part of phase two, when the existing house is removed. Access would be provided by connecting Banting Drive and Caprino Court.

Connection of these streets has been a primary topic of discussion with the neighboring communities. Banting Drive and Caprino Court were intended to connect when both the Penns Crossing and original Kenilworth developments were planned and approved. The accepted proffers providing for future interparcel access are nearly identical: "In the event the property to the [north/west] is subdivided, rezoned, or otherwise developed, the Applicant (or successor HOA) shall permit an extension of [Banting Drive/Caprino Court] in the location shown..." When Caprino Court was accepted into the public street system earlier this year, it was done with the understanding that it would connect to Banting Drive if this adjacent site were developed.

VDOT adopted a connectivity policy more than a decade ago to provide a network of local streets and to address concerns with cul-de-sacs and dead-end streets. Street connectivity requirements are included in the Fairfax County Comprehensive Plan Transportation Plan and Public Facilities Manual as well as in the State Code. These connections provide flow for both vehicles and pedestrians within local developments rather than requiring people to go out onto a larger collector road to access a neighboring house. Connectivity is vital in providing timely access for emergency vehicles. It is also important for street maintenance and snow plowing.

County staff review of this application is on hold while the applicants consider design options. Any revisions will be circulated to the nearby HOAs. Supervisor Walkinshaw plans to hold a community meeting after an updated plan has been submitted to the county. A hearing before the Planning Commission has been rescheduled for December 3.

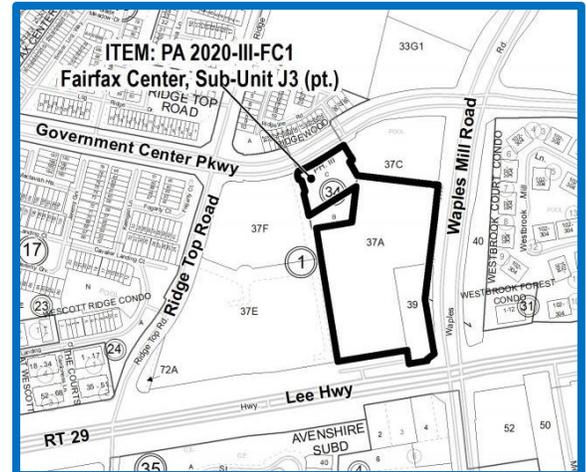

Trinity Christian School Boundary Adjustment

The Trinity Christian School (TCS) is a 25.27-acre private school of general education located on the north side of Braddock Road between Ox Road and Shirley Gate Road. Jonathan Meisner is the owner of property directly adjacent to TCS on the northern side. Mr. Meisner has filed a Special Exception Amendment to adjust the limits of the school's approved Special Exception area to permit a lot line adjustment between his and TCS's properties. The land swap of approximately 21,000 square feet would allow both parties to use the land more efficiently and optimize space. No additional square footage or operational changes are being requested for the school. This application is scheduled for a Planning Commission hearing on October 14. No date has been set for a hearing before the Board of Supervisors.

Comprehensive Plan for NW Corner of Lee Highway and Waples Mill Road

The northwest corner of the intersection of Lee Highway and Waples Mill Road contains an older house and an outbuilding that was formerly used as a contractor's office and workshop. An existing Public Storage facility surrounds the property on the north and west. The corner lot is for sale, and Public Storage has expressed interest in expanding its storage use onto that property. This area is planned for office use with an option for office/mixed use should it be redeveloped. The intersection is also planned for a potential interchange after Shirley Gate Road is extended to the Fairfax County Parkway.

At Supervisor Walkinshaw's request, county planning staff are considering a Comprehensive Plan Amendment for both the corner lot and the surrounding Public Storage property to ensure that the plan for this corner remains in line with the vision for Fairfax Center and the recent developments around these sites. During this review, consideration is being given to what options might be appropriate for the site, whether self-storage or alternative uses, factoring in land use, architecture and design, landscaping, park space, and pedestrian and transportation improvements. A report is expected this fall.

A concurrent rezoning application has been filed by Public Storage Southeast One, Inc. to consolidate the corner parcel with their existing self-storage property. Public Storage is proposing to demolish one row of its existing single-story, self-storage bays and construct a climate-controlled, five-story self-storage facility of approximately 149,050 square feet on the southeast corner of the property. To do this, the applicant is seeking to rezone both parcels to the Planned Development Commercial District. The proposed new self-storage building would feature office-like architecture. Access to the site would be provided through a modified and improved entrance along Lee Highway designed per VDOT standards. The existing service drive being used for parking of commercial vehicles, including food trucks, would be removed. Consideration of this rezoning application has been deferred until the Comprehensive Plan review has been completed.
