

Response to Questions on the FY 2006 Advertised Budget Plan

Request By: Supervisor Gross

Question: What is the cost associated with restoring Sunday hours to community libraries?

Response: Currently, only the eight regional libraries in the Fairfax County Public Library system offer Sunday library hours. In order to provide Sunday library hours at the 12 community libraries, funding of $822,321 (includes fringe benefits of $148,985) is required to support 18 new merit positions and 4 exempt positions. Similar to the regional libraries, the funding would allow community libraries to be open every Sunday from 12 noon to 6 p.m.
