

Response to Questions on the FY 2010
County's Line of Business & Schools Program Review Processes
Fall 2008

Request By: Supervisor Gross

Question: How long have the residents currently at Lincolnia Center been living there?

Response: The Lincolnia Center consists of 52 units of assisted living and 26 units of senior living. The average length of stay in the assisted living program is four years, with the longest residency being 18 years. The newest assisted living resident has been at the facility for two months.

The average length of stay in the senior living portion is six years, with the longest residency being 18 years. The newest senior living resident has been at the facility for five months.