<sup>1</sup> The base Transfer Out to the General Fund represents compensation for staff and services provided by the County primarily for cable-related activities and is calculated as 20 percent of the franchise operating fees. In addition, annual reconciliation of the revenue and subsequent transfer is conducted and necessary adjustments have been incorporated in the FY 2017 budget.

<sup>2</sup> In FY 2017, this funding reflects a direct transfer of $2.0 million to Fund 10040, Information Technology, to support multiple IT project requirements.

<sup>3</sup> FY 2017 funding of $1,814,103 reflects a direct transfer to Fund 60030, Technology Infrastructure Services, to support staff and equipment costs related to the construction of the I-Net. In addition, in FY 2017 an amount of $1,731,288 is included reflecting the fifth year of a multi-year commitment to replace and refresh core elements of the I-Net.

<sup>4</sup> The base Transfer Out to the Schools funding reflects compensation for staff and services provided by the Fairfax County Public Schools (FCPS) and is calculated as 20 percent of the franchise operating fees. Of this total, FCPS directs $600,000 to Fund S10000, School Operating Fund, with the remaining total directed to Fund S50000, Schools Grants & Self Supporting. Annual reconciliation of the revenue and subsequent transfer is conducted and necessary adjustments have been incorporated in the FY 2017 budget.

<sup>5</sup> This funding reflects a direct transfer of $350,000 to FCPS to support a replacement equipment grant.

<sup>6</sup> Actual ending balances fluctuate year to year, as ending balances are reappropriated within Fund 40030. Equipment and services expenditure requirements fluctuate year to year based on I-Net construction and maintenance schedule.
