Sales Tax receipts distributed to Fairfax County in May, which represent retail purchases made in March, were $12.9 million, up 12.4 percent from May 2009. This increase is due in part to a substantial decrease in receipts received last May. Year-to-date in FY 2010, Sales Tax receipts are down 3.5 percent compared to the first ten months of FY 2009.

National Economic Indicators

- Housing starts in April rose 5.8 percent, following a 5.0 percent increase in March. On a month-over-the-year basis, the April annualized pace was up 40.9 percent. Given the expiration of the homebuyers’ tax credit in April, homebuilders scaled back, with building permits posting an 11.5 percent decline in April, following a 2.1 percent rise in March. The April pace for permits on an annualized basis is up 15.9 percent from a year ago.

- The U.S. Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers (CPI-U) dipped 0.1 percent in April, following a 0.1 percent increase in March. The index has increased 2.2 percent over the last 12 months.

- Pending sales for existing homes rose 5.3 percent in March, likely boosted by the homebuyers’ tax credit expiration in April. On a month-over-the-year basis, pending sales were up 21.1 percent. The report by the National Association of Realtors notes that home sales are likely to fall after the latest round of stimulus expires.

Gross Domestic Product

According to the revised estimate released by the Bureau of Economic Analysis, the national economy grew at an annual rate of 3.0 percent in the first quarter of 2010. In the initial estimate from last month, the increase in real gross domestic product (GDP) was 3.2 percent.

Consumer Confidence Index
