Minutes

- A motion was made by Commissioner Fielding and seconded by Commissioner Panettieri to approve the minutes from April 20, 2017. The motion carried unanimously.

Reports

- Vice-Chair Geier-Smith did not have a report
- Vice-Chair Geier-Smith introduced Vincent Jenkins from Cornerstones.

Director's Report

- Director Liberman announced County Executive Edward L. Long Jr. will retire in September 2017. He outlined the search process underway for the next County Executive.

Staff Report

- Tenant outreach continues at the Katherine Hanley Shelter.

- " Based on increased inquiries regarding short-term residential rentals, information was shared regarding the Fairfax County Zoning Ordinance, which does not permit roomers or boarders for a period less than 30 days without a special exception.
- " A complaint regarding a tenant seeking a refund of their $550 application fee was summarized. The tenant withdrew their rental application after not being informed of a $100 monthly parking fee for their aide, who provides daily assistance for the tenant's disabled child. According to the tenant, the landlord initially stated the aide could use visitor parking, but changed it to a monthly fee when it was time to sign the lease. After CA intervention, the landlord refunded the $550 application fee. Commissioners and staff discussed reasonable accommodations based on fair housing laws.

Commission Matters

- " Commissioner Fielding shared information about the Fair Housing Training and Luncheon he attended in April. He also attended Celebrate Fairfax and commented on the helpful information available to residents from county agencies.
- " Commissioner Panettieri discussed the book "Evicted", which details how the cycle of eviction deepens inequalities of the poor and the working poor.
- " Commissioner Purnell connected with Nady Peralta with the Legal Aid Justice Center. She will be seeking opportunities to share their services with tenants in South County.
- " The calendar was reviewed. No updates at this time.
