

FAIRFAX COUNTY COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY JUSTICE ADVISORY COUNCIL

OFFICIAL APPLICATION

“To fight for our community’s values inside this courthouse, I need to be sure I’m always aware of what’s going on in the community.” - Commonwealth’s Attorney Steve Descano

It’s important to better understand our community and how our justice system interacts with it daily. Therefore, Commonwealth’s Attorney Descano has formed the Justice Advisory Council. The purpose of this council is to hear from local voices, discuss the potential for better processes, exchange data, group think policy ideas, and help lead the fight for tangible justice reform. This group will be made up of community representatives from throughout Fairfax County: heads of nonprofits, advocates, activists, faith leaders, business owners, and everyday community members will be meeting with this office regularly.

If you are a resident of Fairfax County or Fairfax City and are interested in applying to be a part of the Justice Advisory Council, please complete the fields below and email this form to:

You may decline to answer certain information you are uncomfortable sharing. However, we are committed to having a diverse array of individuals from across our community and this information is important to ensuring that happens. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis. Although you may be qualified, space is limited and if we cannot utilize your participation immediately, you will remain notified of J.A.C. progress and your application will be kept on file for future consideration. Thank you for your interest in this exciting program.
