UPDATE ON BIJAN GHAI SAR CASE – PARK POLICE OFFICERS ARRAIGNED

FAIRFAX COUNTY, VA – The two federal Park Police Officers involved in the 2017 shooting of Bijan Ghaisar turned themselves in to the Fairfax County Magistrate's Office and were held for arraignment. Arraignment occurred for both at a 10:00 AM hearing this morning in the Fairfax County Courthouse. Following arraignment, the officers were released on bond. The Commonwealth's Attorney's Office called for conditions on their release as they await trial to include the prohibition of possession of firearms and ammunition, the prohibition of the exercise of police powers, and a prohibition from leaving the Commonwealth of Virginia. A status hearing date for both defendants has been set for Monday, November 23.
