Light Duty: < 10,000 Gross Vehicle Weight
No.	Definition	Old Rate	3.0% increase	New Rate
1.	Standard Tow: Non-accident tow in which standard tow equipment is used. No additional special equipment or labor required. Vehicle for storage includes tow back to storage facility. This fee cannot be compounded with other fees contained herein and is a standalone fee.	$225	$6.75	$231.75
2.	Crash/Collision Tow: Towing and removal involved in a crash and cleaning of the crash scene. Collision tow fee includes tow back to storage yard (no mileage fee) or first 5 miles of towing to a different location. Fee includes crash cleanup as required by law to include ordinary use of broom, shovel, absorbent, and the pickup of minor crash debris (bumper covers, headlights, small car pieces, etc.).	$350	$10.50	$360.50
3.	Additional Recovery: $150 – to be charged for any scene clean up that is beyond the ordinary use of a broom, shovel and the first bucket of absorbent material.	$150	$4.50	$154.50
4.	Storage/Day: Daily storage fee charged per calendar day to maintain secure possession of a vehicle preventing unauthorized access and theft of the vehicle's content. Storage starts when a vehicle enters a storage facility.	$80	$2.40	$82.40
5.	Mileage: Per loaded mile after 5 road miles.	$5	$0.15	$5.15
6.	Administrative Fee: Fee authorized once three (3) business days have lapsed. This fee is intended to be reflective of the use of the tow operators' resources for disposing of an unclaimed or likely-to-be unclaimed vehicle. This fee should be reflective of the costs associated with mechanic's liens, abandoned vehicle paperwork, certified postage, owner notification, auction entry, obtaining title, and other lawful disposal methods.	$150	$4.50	$154.50
7.	Return to Storage: tow from a police facility back to the contractor's storage location. These tows happen when a vehicle is towed to either a district station, crime scene or OSB for processing and then must be towed back to the contractor's storage location for release to the owner.	$150	$4.50	$154.50
