

BYLAWS OF THE FAIRFAX COUNTY YOUNG ADULTS ADVISORY COUNCIL

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of this organization is the Fairfax County Young Adults Advisory Council, hereinafter referred to as the “Council.”

ARTICLE II – PURPOSE

The Council has been established by the Board of Supervisors of Fairfax County, Virginia (“Board of Supervisors”), pursuant to Virginia law for the purposes set forth in the Resolution Stating the Purposes, Membership, and Procedures of the Fairfax County Young Adults Advisory Council, adopted by the Board of Supervisors on March 10, 2020.

These bylaws are effective as of February 21, 2023.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP AND TERM OF OFFICE

Appointments. Membership and appointments to the Council shall be made by the Board of Supervisors, and members shall serve for such term or terms as established by the Board of Supervisors.

Resignations and Vacancies. In the event a member cannot serve or resigns from office, then the Chairperson, Secretary, or County staff coordinator shall advise the Clerk for the Board of Supervisors of the vacancy in writing.

Holdovers. In the event a member completes his or her term of office, remains qualified to serve as a member, and the Board of Supervisors has not reappointed that member to another term or appointed a successor member, then that person may continue to serve until such time as the member is reappointed or a successor member is appointed.

ARTICLE IV – OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES

Elections. The Council shall be served by three officers: a Chairperson, a Vice-Chairperson, and a Secretary. The Chairperson shall be elected in accordance with the voting provisions of Article V by the Council members annually and such election shall be scheduled at the first meeting of each calendar year. Two months prior to the election meeting, a slate of candidates shall be nominated during a meeting held pursuant to Article V. After nomination, each candidate shall be polled on his or her willingness and ability to serve as Chairperson of the Council. At the election meeting, the Chairperson shall be elected from among the willing nominees in accordance with the voting provisions of Article V. At the meeting immediately following the election of the Chairperson, the Chairperson shall nominate the Vice-Chairperson and Secretary. After nomination, each candidate shall be polled on his or her willingness and ability to serve as an officer of the Council. The Vice-Chairperson and Secretary shall then be elected from among the willing nominees in accordance with the voting provisions of Article V.

Chairperson. The Chairperson presides over meetings of the Council and is eligible to vote at all times. The Chairperson has the authority to delegate appropriate functions to Council members and to request assistance from the County staff supporting the Council.

Vice-Chairperson. In the absence of the Chairperson at a meeting, the Vice-Chairperson shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Chairperson. In the event that neither the Chairperson nor the Vice-Chairperson is available, the member present with the longest tenure on the Council shall act as Chairperson.

Secretary. The Secretary, or a duly appointed agent, shall be responsible for recording the minutes of meetings.

Replacement Officers. If an office becomes vacant for any reason, it shall be filled by an election at the next regular meeting having a majority of members present. The newly elected officer shall complete the unexpired term of the officer succeeded. Prior to the election of any replacement officer, all members shall be provided with notice of the proposed election before the meeting at which the replacement is elected.

ARTICLE V – MEETINGS

VFOIA. All meetings shall be open to the public except as provided under the Virginia Freedom of Information Act, Virginia Code § 2.2-3700 et seq., as amended ("VFOIA"). Pursuant to Virginia Code § 2.2-3701, "meeting" or "meetings" means the meetings including work sessions, when sitting physically, or through electronic communication means pursuant to the VFOIA or other applicable Virginia law, as a body or entity, or as an informal assemblage of (i) as many as three members or (ii) a quorum, if less than three, of the constituent membership, wherever held, with or without minutes being taken, whether or not votes are cast, of any public body.

Notice and Agenda. Notice and the agenda of all meetings shall be provided as required under the VFOIA. All meetings shall be preceded by properly posted notice stating the date, time, and location of each meeting. Notice of a meeting shall be given at least three working days prior to the meeting. Notice of emergency meetings, reasonable under the circumstances, shall be given contemporaneously with the notice provided to Council members. Notices of all meetings shall be provided to the Office of Public Affairs for posting at the Government Center and on the County Web site. All meetings shall be conducted in public places that are accessible to persons with disabilities.

Frequency. The Council shall meet monthly or as determined by the Chairperson in consultation with the Department of Economic Initiatives. Meetings shall be held at a time agreed to by a majority of the Council's members, and at a place arranged by the staff of the Department of Economic Initiatives.

Voting. A quorum is necessary for a vote. A majority of the membership of the Council shall constitute a quorum. In making any recommendations, adopting any plan, or approving any proposal, action shall be taken by a majority vote of Council members present and voting. Upon the request of any member, the vote of each member on any issue shall be recorded in the minutes. All votes of Council members shall be taken during a public meeting, and no vote shall be taken by secret or written ballot or by proxy.

Conduct. Except as otherwise provided by Virginia law or these bylaws, all meetings shall be conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, and except as specifically authorized by the VFOIA, no meeting shall be conducted through telephonic, video, electronic, or other communication means where the members are not all physically assembled to discuss or transact public business.

Public Access. For any meeting, at least one copy of the agenda, all agenda packets, and, unless exempt under the VFOIA, all materials furnished to Council members shall be made available for public inspection at the same time such documents are furnished to the Council members. Pursuant to the VFOIA, any person may photograph, film, record, or otherwise reproduce any portion of a meeting required to be open, but such actions may not interfere with any Council proceedings.

Records. The Secretary or an appointed representative shall ensure that minutes of meetings are recorded as required under the VFOIA. Minutes shall include: (1) the date, time, and location of each meeting; (2) the identity of the members of the public body who participated in the meeting through electronic communication means, if applicable; (3) the identity of the members of the public body who were physically assembled at one physical location, if applicable; (4) and the identity of the members of the public body who were not present at the location identified who monitored such meeting through electronic communication means, if applicable; (5) a summary of the discussion on matters proposed, deliberated, or decided; and (6) a record of any votes taken. Such minutes are public records and subject to inspection and copying by citizens of the Commonwealth or by members of the news media. The Department of Economic Initiatives shall provide staff support to review and approve records and minutes of the meeting.

Attorney-Client Privilege. Records containing legal advice from counsel to the Council, and advice provided in closed session by legal counsel to the Council, are protected by the attorney-client privilege and from disclosure under the VFOIA. Any such records or advice should not be disclosed by members of the Council to any third party, or the privilege against disclosure may be waived. Questions regarding the handling of records or advice subject to attorney-client privilege should be directed to the Council's legal counsel.

ARTICLE VI - ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION

Any Council member who misses three consecutive meetings or more than half of the scheduled meetings within a 12-month period, or who fails to participate in the work of the Council without good cause acceptable to a majority of the other Council members may be subject to removal from the Council.

ARTICLE VII - REMOVAL

Any Council member(s) may be recommended to the Board of Supervisors for removal from the Council for cause, including but not limited to cause as set forth in Article VI, by a two-thirds majority vote of all of the Council members. The members' authority to recommend removal under these bylaws neither limits nor waives the Board of Supervisors' authority to remove members from the Council as provided by law.

ARTICLE VIII – STANDING COMMITTEES AND SPECIAL WORKGROUPS

Standing Committees. The Chairperson may appoint standing committees and a chairperson for each with the consent of a majority of the Council members present and voting.

Special Workgroups. The Chairperson may appoint special workgroups and a chairperson for each with the consent of a majority of the Council members present and voting.

All meetings of any such committees and workgroups shall comply with the notice and other requirements of the VFOIA. To the extent practicable, any such committees and workgroups shall be composed of at least four members. Committee and workgroup meetings may be held at the call of the Chairperson or at the request of two members, with notice to all members.

ARTICLE IX – COMPLIANCE WITH LAW AND COUNTY POLICY

The Council shall comply with all Virginia laws, including, but not limited to, the VFOIA, and the Virginia State and Local Government Conflict of Interests Act, Virginia Code § 2.2-3100 et seq., as amended, with all County ordinances, and with all County policies concerning the activities of its boards, authorities, and commissions. In case of a conflict between a provision of these bylaws and any applicable ordinance or law, the provisions of the applicable ordinance or law, as the case may be, shall control.

ARTICLE X – AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS

These bylaws may be amended by the Council by adopting the proposed amendment or amendments and by presenting those proposed changes for approval to the Board of Supervisors. Any such amendments to bylaws shall become effective upon approval by the Board of Supervisors.

These bylaws of the Fairfax County Young Adults Advisory Council were approved by the Board of Supervisors of Fairfax County, Virginia during a regular meeting held on February 21, 2023.
