

CECAP SUMMARY

OF PUBLIC SURVEY FEEDBACK

This document details the responses to the public survey that was conducted as part of the first round of public feedback on the Fairfax County Community-wide Energy and Climate Action Plan (CECAP), conducted from August 27 through September 13, 2020. The survey questions and responses are shown below, with a brief narrative for each section.

Two items should be noted about the survey. First, this survey was designed as a baseline inquiry into the attitudes and behaviors of the general public, including residents, workers, and other stakeholders in Fairfax County. The survey results will not be used to determine which strategies or actions will be incorporated into the final CECAP recommendations. Second, many survey respondents noted that there was not an option to indicate that the behavior in question (e.g. “increase the insulation in your home” had already been done). While this option should have been provided for the most complete baseline assessment, as the survey was designed to capture actions that might be taken but hadn’t already, the population of interest is the group still considering the action but not yet having taken it.

Please note there may be a different number of respondents noted for each of the questions below due to the survey logic that allowed respondents to skip questions that did not apply to them.

BASELINE BEHAVIORS

TRANSPORTATION

Fairfax County is a car-centric jurisdiction, and the majority of transportation is done via automobile. Survey respondents expressed limited interest in switching to an alternative mode of transportation in the near term. The effect of COVID-19 on telework remains to be determined but is an area of developing interest. Likewise, alternative fuel and electric vehicles were of significant interest to survey respondents.

Q28: IN THE NEXT ONE OR TWO YEARS, DO YOU PLAN TO MAKE ANY OTHER ENERGY EFFICIENCY IMPROVEMENTS TO YOUR BUSINESS? IF SO, PLEASE DESCRIBE THEM BELOW.

- We've just built a brand new HQ that is LEED certified. We are looking for opportunities to purchase renewable energy in Virginia.
- We installed an array of solar panels at my home business and my church, and am now planning to buy a powerwall battery back up for my home business and add more panels to my system.
- No improvements
- Replace solar collectors on church roof.
- We currently have solar panels on our roof, an electric car, all eco-friendly appliances, newer windows, etc. You might consider changing the survey to ask whether people have these things or not already.
- NO
- To be determined if clients start giving work and paying invoices.
- Constantly trying to improve
- Solar installation
- Convert lighting to LED. Motion sensors. Looking at solar panels
- Most of these improvements have already been made
- Possibly solar panels on the roofs of our 4 rental homes.
- My building is owned by a local jurisdiction and so I am at their mercy!! Whilst I would like to make these improvements - I doubt they will happen! I have however changed all the light bulbs to LEDs
- Already renovated to energy efficient standards
- Demand control ventilation, Building Automation System (BAS) upgrades, Retrocommissioning, solar and storage microgrids, Variable Frequency Drives (VFDs), etc.
- This is a poor survey. There is no opportunity to include efficiencies that have already been made. I have an electric car, 100% renewable energy in my home and business and the survey gives no space to include these answers. It appears to be a waste of time and money because it won't capture all of the people who have already made investments.
- None what's so ever. I personally go out of my way to avoid purchasing anything remotely close to energy efficient products. They are built and developed with poor materials do not have the output that the product should have. Even if Fairfax county or the state of Virginia provided these items for free I still would not take advantage of it. Why purchase something that's going to be a bigger headache in the long run

- Yes! If Virginia expects me to pay a boatload more taxes for a phony climate change cause then I'll move out of Virginia. THE CLIMATE IS ALWAYS CHANGING. I AM SICK AND TIRED OF GLOBAL THIEVES CONCOCTING NEW WAYS TO STEAL FROM THE HUMAN RACE. PEOPLE ARE SICK AND TIRED OF THE LIES AND THERE WILL BE CONSEQUENCES FOR YOUR ACTIONS.
- Earth conscious packaging. Taking more responsibility for recycling Instead of placing it on my customers.
- Appliances
- Need to replace commercial rooftop HVAC system now. Actively looking/waiting for financial incentive. None found yet.
- Maybe lights
- No. I use actual science and business models to operate my business, not political agendas. How many businesses have you successfully managed?
- Have a home office and work in construction industry. My home is taken care of.
- Window coverings, solar panels.
- not many needed
- Improved ventilation.
- We thought about going solar, but it is much more expensive than advertised.
- Tearing down current building and re-building a totally new facility
- It is going to fluctuate both on the operating expenses, etc., and also the other things that they have to pay for.
- We just moved into a Silver LEED certified building in the fall of 2019.
- Our business is a tenant in a larger building and we do not control most everything that you asked about above. We do have energy efficient lighting and equipment, where we control what is in the space.
- We practice energy conservation. We rarely use AC, and in winter we keep the place between 60 and 65 F. We don't own a clothes dryer and do a minimum of laundry. We use a battery lawn mower and never use pesticides or synthetic fertilizer. Yard chemicals use fossil fuels and fertiliser emit nitrous oxide, a green house gas.
- Since I primarily work from home and my home is brand new, I do not plan to make any additional energy efficiency improvements.
- None planned or needed. newer building already energy efficient.
- My place of work is in Arlington County. The building is being renovated right now.
- Solar energy
- PV panels
