Leigh Taylor walked the group through the original goals of the group. Backlog in Court is getting caught up and it is not as big a backlog. Commonwealth Attorney's Office is doing IPV cases involved unless there is no attorney.

The workgroup discussed the goals set back when the group commenced, focusing in on Evidentiary issues and the need for representation from the Commonwealth Attorney's Office. The workgroup feels its work is not done and would like to convene in March and April.

IV. Determine the Path Forward

The workgroup will convene in person in March. Leigh Taylor will book a room in the courthouse.
