

Court Process Workgroup: Victim Access Subgroup
Tuesday, April 18, 2023
8:00 AM- 9:00 AM
Fairfax County Courthouse
Room 201.1

Members Present: Judge Stoney (Chair), Judge Frieden, Nora Mahoney (Co-Chair), Bolivia Bustamante, Tina Spurlock, Kacey Kirkland, Renee Carol-Grate, and Brittany Vera

Members and TA Providers Participating Remotely: Mabel Prine and David Steib

Members Absent: Ayaan Ali, Fazia Deen, Sandra Guerrero Perez, Pam Sejas, Kristi Smith, Stephanie Romonchuk, Angela Yeboah, and Toni Zollicoffer

I. Welcome

Judge Stoney welcomed group members to the meeting. She recognized Mabel Prine, who is participating remotely due to the fact that she lives more than 60 miles away from the meeting location. David Steib, of Ayuda, is participating remotely as a technical assistance provider.

II. PO Process Material Review: Finish section for Protective Order Trial

Nora Mahoney reviewed the final sections of the section about the protective order hearing. Group members provided feedback and edits to the material. The group completed the section and agreed they were ready to move on to the next section.

III. Begin section for Appeals Process

The group reviewed this section and made some edits to the document. The group agreed it will review this section once more briefly in case there are any additional edits. The group reviewed additional sections to be written and identified stakeholders that are needed to write sections related to criminal matters. Nora Mahoney and Kacey Kirkland agreed to connect regarding the sections about violations of protective orders and to begin drafting some material with a DV Detective.

IV. Public Comment

There were no members of the public in attendance.

V. Adjourn

Judge Stoney adjourned the meeting. The next meeting will be on May 16, 2023, at 8am, in person at the Fairfax County Courthouse, Room 201.1, 4110 Chain Bridge Rd. Fairfax, VA 22030