I. Welcome

II. PO Process Material Review

- a. How to Modify a PO for a criminal case
- b. How to Dissolve a PO
- c. How to File a Violation of the PO

The group made edits and modifications to the document to ensure they were accurate and consistent with current processes and procedures.

III. Public Comment

There were comments from members of the public.

IV. Next Steps

Nora Mahoney will draft the section about extending a protective order when the law goes into effect July 1. It will be ready to review at the next meeting. A glossary of terms also needs to be completed with the legal and process-specific terminology.

The group will also need to consider how survivors will give feedback about the material that has been drafted once it is finalized and edits are complete.

July meeting will be in person, August meeting will be virtual. Brittany will send out a meeting poll to identify the larger number of people who will have in person availability in the fall/early winter months.

V. Adjourn

Next meeting: July 18, 2023, at 8am
