District Host: Dranesville, Supervisor Jimmy Bierman – in-person

- Supervisor Bierman thanked the COA for the invitation to speak. A lifelong resident of Dranesville, he was elected to the BOS this past November.

- Older adults want to age in place because Fairfax County is a great place to live. Downsizing can be a challenge. Supervisor Bierman prioritizes senior housing in the county. Discussion of expanding and maintaining affordable housing in the county.
- Discussed various topics with COA commissioners – home sharing, senior tax relief, ZMOD, ADU’s, walkability, transit corridors, meals tax, and office building conversion to affordable housing.

AAA Director’s Report: Beth Ann Margetta, Program Manager, for Tara Turner, Director, Fairfax Area Agency on Aging

- National Volunteer Week, is April 21-27, we are grateful for the meaningful contributions (including your own!) to our community.
- Our registered dietician will be hosting 3 registered dietician interns in 2-week community rotations in May, June, July. We hope to help build capacity and learning for those interested in nutrition for older adults!
- A proclamation honoring May as Older American’s Month and Adult Abuse Prevention month will take place in May. Linda and Beth Ann will share details on date and time once solidified.
- The Market research project is still actively underway. A check-in meeting will take place with the vendor this Friday to be briefed on data, focus group, and survey efforts thus far. Cathy Cole and Joanne Collins will remain part of this process.

Presentation – SHAPE “E” Initiative, Financial Planning Seminars – Maria Jose Cantoni, Financial Empowerment Center Director, Britepaths

- Financial workshop - Budgeting on a Fixed Income to be introduced initially into three senior centers as a pilot program. Multi-lingual volunteers are trained by Britepaths. Measure success with the pilot programs.
- The slide deck presentation was developed collaboratively at the IDC committee level.
- Kay thanked Maria Jose Cantoni and AAA staff for approving the pilot seminars. Workshops may be recorded by OLLI.

OLD BUSINESS

Data Analytics Mapping Update: John Ruthinoski

- GIS Map Requests for SHAPE Initiatives Form – IDC committees can request a map to inform the implementation of a SHAPE initiative.
- What to expect from the form – Who is the audience for the map? Do you need an overlay? Do you know other places for data? Census categories are available.
- Data Analytics Unit will determine the best way to produce a map.
