

Fairfax Area Disability Services Board Website Accessibility Checklist

Website Information

Website Link:

Content

<input type="checkbox"/>	There are Screen-reader Compatible Web Pages
<input type="checkbox"/>	The site is Style Sheet Independence

Images

<input type="checkbox"/>	There are Alt-tagged Images (which will help visually impaired users to identify the image via text or via a screen reader) and Alt-tagged Tables (to help explain each column via text)
--------------------------	--

Forms

<input type="checkbox"/>	The site has Accessible Forms
--------------------------	-------------------------------

Color Contrast

<input type="checkbox"/>	The site should have Inclusive Color Schemes (should not contain any colors or color combinations that are either integral to the correct usage of your website, or which may confuse those with color blindness)
--------------------------	---

Keyboard

<input type="checkbox"/>	The site should allow Keyboard-friendly Browsing
--------------------------	--

Audio and Video

<input type="checkbox"/>	The site should have Harmless Website Design (website should not serve images or videos that can cause seizures)- audio and video
<input type="checkbox"/>	The Audio and Video should have subtitles, captions, or written transcripts – audio and video

User Control and Freedom

<input type="checkbox"/>	Text can be increased and decreased in size by the user
<input type="checkbox"/>	There is no time limit imposed on users