

Chapter 14

PROGRAM INTEGRITY

INTRODUCTION

The FCRHA is committed to ensuring that subsidy funds made available to the FCRHA are spent in accordance with HUD requirements.

This chapter covers HUD and FCRHA policies designed to prevent, detect, investigate, and resolve instances of program abuse or fraud. It also describes the actions that will be taken in the case of unintentional errors and omissions.

Part I: Preventing, Detecting, and Investigating Errors and Program Abuse. This part presents FCRHA policies related to preventing, detecting, and investigating errors and program abuse.

Part II: Corrective Measures and Penalties. This part describes the corrective measures the FCRHA must and may take when errors or program abuses are found.

PART I: PREVENTING, DETECTING, AND INVESTIGATING ERRORS AND PROGRAM ABUSE

14-I.A PREVENTING ERRORS AND PROGRAM ABUSE

HUD created the Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system to provide PHAs with a powerful tool for preventing errors and detecting program abuse. PHAs are required to use the EIV system at annual reexamination in accordance with HUD administrative guidance [24 CFR 5.233].

PHAs are further required to:

- Provide applicants and participants with form HUD-52675, “Debts Owed to PHAs and Terminations”
- Require all adult members of an applicant or participant family to acknowledge receipt of form HUD-52675 by signing a copy of the form for retention in the family file

FCRHA Policy

To ensure that the FCRHA’s HCV program is administered according to the highest ethical and legal standards, the FCRHA will employ a variety of techniques to ensure that both errors and intentional program abuse are rare.

- The FCRHA will discuss program compliance and integrity issues during the voucher briefing sessions described in Chapter 5.
- The FCRHA will provide each applicant and participant with a copy of “Is Fraud Worth It?” (form HUD-1141-OIG), which explains the types of actions a family must avoid and the penalties for program abuse.
- The FCRHA will provide each applicant and participant with a copy of “What You Should Know about EIV,” a guide to the Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system published by HUD as an attachment to Notice PIH 2017-12. In addition, the FCRHA will require the head of each household to acknowledge receipt of the guide by signing a copy for retention in the family file.
- The FCRHA will place a warning statement about the penalties for fraud (as described in 18 U.S.C. 1001 and 1010) on key FCRHA forms and form letters that request information from a family or owner.
- FCRHA staff will be required to review and explain the contents of all HUD- and FCRHA-required forms prior to requesting family member signatures.
- The FCRHA will conduct landlord-briefing sessions. This session enables new landlords and participating landlords, currently on the program, to learn about the landlord’s, tenant’s and the Housing Authority’s various responsibilities.
- The FCRHA will provide owners with ongoing information about the program, with an emphasis on actions and situations to avoid.
- The FCRHA will provide each FCRHA employee with the necessary training on program rules and the organization’s standards of conduct and ethics.

For purposes of this chapter, the term error refers to an unintentional error or omission. Program abuse or fraud refers to a single act or pattern of actions that constitutes a false statement, omission, or concealment of a substantial fact, made with the intent to deceive or mislead.

14-I.B. DETECTING ERRORS AND PROGRAM ABUSE

In addition to taking steps to prevent errors and program abuse, the FCRHA will use a variety of activities to detect errors and program abuse.

Quality Control and Analysis of Data

Under the Section 8 Management Assessment Program (SEMAP), HUD requires PHAs to review a random sample of tenant records annually to determine if the records conform to program requirements and to conduct quality control inspections of a sample of units to ensure HQS compliance [24 CFR, Part 985]. (Reference Chapter 16 for additional information about SEMAP requirements)

FCRHA Policy

In addition to the SEMAP quality control requirements, the FCRHA will employ a variety of methods to detect errors and program abuse.

- The FCRHA routinely will use HUD and other non-HUD sources of up-front income verification.
- At each regular reexamination, current information provided by the family will be compared to information provided at the last reexamination to identify inconsistencies and incomplete information.
- The FCRHA will compare family-reported income and expenditures to detect possible unreported income.

Independent Audits and HUD Monitoring

OMB Circular A-133 requires all PHAs that expend $500,000 or more in federal awards annually to have an independent audit (IPA). In addition, HUD conducts periodic on-site and automated monitoring of FCRHA activities and notifies the FCRHA of errors and potential cases of program abuse.

FCRHA Policy

The FCRHA will use the results reported in any IPA or HUD monitoring reports to identify potential program abuses as well as to assess the effectiveness of the FCRHA's error detection and abuse prevention efforts.

Individual Reporting of Possible Errors and Program Abuse

FCRHA Policy

The FCRHA will encourage staff, program participants, and the public to report possible program abuse.

14-I.C. INVESTIGATING ERRORS AND PROGRAM ABUSE

When the FCRHA Will Investigate

FCRHA Policy

The FCRHA will review all referrals, specific allegations, complaints, and tips from any source including other agencies, companies, and individuals, to determine if they warrant investigation. In order for the FCRHA to investigate, the allegation must contain at least one independently verifiable item of information, such as the name of an employer or the name of an unauthorized household member.

The FCRHA will investigate when inconsistent or contradictory information is detected through file reviews and the verification process.

Consent to Release of Information [24 CFR 982.516]

The FCRHA may investigate possible instances of error or abuse using all available FCRHA and public records. If necessary, the FCRHA will require HCV families to sign consent forms for the release of additional information.

Analysis and Findings

FCRHA Policy

The FCRHA will base its evaluation on a preponderance of the evidence collected during its investigation.

Preponderance of the evidence is defined as evidence which is of greater weight or more convincing than the evidence which is offered in opposition to it; that is, evidence that as a whole shows that the fact sought to be proved is more probable than not. Preponderance of evidence may not be determined by the number of witnesses, but by the greater weight of all evidence.

For each investigation the FCRHA will determine (1) whether an error or program abuse has occurred, (2) whether any amount of money is owed the FCRHA, and (3) what corrective measures or penalties will be assessed.

Consideration of Remedies

All errors and instances of program abuse must be corrected prospectively. Whether the FCRHA will enforce other corrective actions and penalties depends upon the nature of the error or program abuse.

FCRHA Policy

In the case of family-caused errors or program abuse, the FCRHA will take into consideration (1) the seriousness of the offense and the extent of participation or culpability of individual family members, (2) any special circumstances surrounding the case, (3) any mitigating circumstances related to the disability of a family member, and (4) the effects of a particular remedy on family members who were not involved in the offense.

In the case of owner-caused errors or program abuse, the FCRHA will take into consideration (1) the seriousness of the offense, (2) the length of time since the violation has occurred, and (3) the effects of a particular remedy on family members who were not involved in the offense.

Notice and Appeals

FCRHA Policy

The FCRHA will inform the relevant party in writing of its findings and remedies within ten (10) business days of the conclusion of the investigation. The notice will include:

- A description of the error or program abuse;
- The basis on which the FCRHA determined the error or program abuses;
- The remedies to be employed; and
- The family's right to appeal the results through the informal review or hearing process, if applicable. (Reference Chapter 16)

PART II: CORRECTIVE MEASURES AND PENALTIES

14-II.A. SUBSIDY UNDER- OR OVERPAYMENTS

A subsidy under- or overpayment includes (1) an incorrect housing assistance payment to the owner, (2) an incorrect family share established for the family, and (3) an incorrect utility reimbursement to a family.

Corrections

Whether the incorrect subsidy determination is an overpayment or underpayment of subsidy, the FCRHA must promptly correct the HAP, family share, and any utility reimbursement prospectively.

FCRHA Policy

The FCRHA will provide a 20-business day notice to the household upon identifying a correction. The notice will indicate the effective date of when the correction will be applied.

Reimbursement

Whether the family or owner is required to reimburse the FCRHA or the FCRHA is required to make retroactive subsidy payments to the owner or family depends upon which party is responsible for the incorrect subsidy payment and whether the action taken was an error or program abuse. Policies regarding reimbursement are discussed in the three sections that follow.

14-II.B. FAMILY-CAUSED ERRORS AND PROGRAM ABUSE

Family obligations and general administrative requirements for participating in the program are discussed throughout this plan. This section deals specifically with errors and program abuse by family members.

An incorrect subsidy determination caused by a family generally would be the result of incorrect reporting of family composition, income, assets, or expenses, but also would include instances in which the family knowingly allows the PHA to use incorrect information provided by a third party.

Family Reimbursement to FCRHA [HCV GB pp. 22-12 to 22-13]

FCRHA Policy

The FCRHA will issue a warning letter to the family in the case of family-caused errors and may require the family to repay any excess subsidy received. The FCRHA may, but is not required to, offer the family a repayment agreement in accordance with Chapter 16. In the case of program abuse, families are required to repay any excess subsidy received. The FCRHA may, but is not required to, offer the family a repayment agreement in accordance with Chapter 16. If the family fails to repay the excess subsidy, the FCRHA may terminate the family's assistance in accordance with the policies in Chapter 12.

FCRHA Reimbursement to Family [HCV GB p. 22-12]

FCRHA Policy

The FCRHA will not reimburse the family for any underpayment of assistance when the underpayment clearly is caused by the family.

Prohibited Actions

An applicant or participant in the HCV program must not knowingly:

- Make a false statement to the PHA [Title 18 U.S.C. Section 1001].
- Commit fraud, bribery, or any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with any federal housing program [24 CFR 982.552(c)(iv)].

FCRHA Policy

Any of the following will be considered evidence of family program abuse:

- Payment to the owner in excess of amounts authorized by the FCRHA for rent, security deposit, and additional services; any mitigating circumstances related to the safety and security of the household will be considered by the FCRHA
- Offering bribes or illegal gratuities to the FCRHA Board of Commissioners, employees, contractors, or other FCRHA representatives
- Offering payments or other incentives to the owner or a third party as an inducement for the third party to make false or misleading statements to the FCRHA on the family's behalf
- Use of a false name or the use of falsified, forged, or altered documents
- Intentional misreporting of family information or circumstances (e.g. income, family composition)
- Omitted facts that were obviously known by a family member (e.g., not reporting employment income)
- Admission of program abuse by an adult family member

The FCRHA may determine other actions to be program abuse based upon a preponderance of the evidence, as defined earlier in this chapter.

Penalties for Program Abuse

In the case of program abuse caused by a family the FCRHA may, at its discretion, impose any of the following remedies.

- The FCRHA may require the family to repay excess subsidy amounts paid by the FCRHA, as described earlier in this section.

- The FCRHA may require, as a condition of receiving or continuing assistance, that a culpable family member not reside in the unit. Reference policies in Chapter 3 (for applicants) and Chapter 12 (for participants).
- The FCRHA may deny or terminate the family's assistance following the policies set forth in Chapter 3 and Chapter 12 respectively.
- The FCRHA may refer the family for state or federal criminal prosecution as described in section 14-II.E.

14-II.C. OWNER-CAUSED ERROR OR PROGRAM ABUSE

Owner requirements that are part of the regular process of offering, leasing, and maintaining a unit (e.g., HQS compliance, fair housing) are addressed in the appropriate chapters of this HCV Administrative Plan. This section focuses on errors and program abuse by owners.

An incorrect subsidy determination caused by an owner generally would be the result of an incorrect owner statement about the characteristics of the assisted unit (e.g., the number of bedrooms, which utilities are paid by the family). It also includes accepting duplicate housing assistance payments for the same unit in the same month, or after a family no longer resides in the unit.

Owner Reimbursement to the FCRHA

In all cases of overpayment of subsidy caused by the owner, the owner must repay to the FCRHA any excess subsidy received. The FCRHA may recover overpaid amounts by withholding housing assistance payments due for subsequent months, or if the debt is large, the FCRHA may allow the owner to pay in installments over a period of time [HCV GB p. 22-13].

FCRHA Policy

In cases where the owner has received excess subsidy, the FCRHA will require the owner to repay the amount owed in accordance with the policies in Section 16-IV.B.

Prohibited Owner Actions

An owner participating in the HCV program must not:

- Make any false statement to the PHA [Title 18 U.S.C. Section 1001].
- Commit fraud, bribery, or any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with any federal housing program [24 CFR 982.453(a)(3)] including:

FCRHA Policy

Any of the following will be considered evidence of owner program abuse:

- Charging the family rent above or below the amount specified by the FCRHA
- Charging a security deposit other than that specified in the family's lease
- Charging the family for services that are provided to unassisted tenants at no extra charge

- Knowingly accepting housing assistance payments for any month(s) after the family has vacated the unit
- Knowingly accepting incorrect or excess housing assistance payments
- Offering bribes or illegal gratuities to the FCRHA Board of Commissioners, employees, contractors, or other FCRHA representatives
- Offering payments or other incentives to an HCV family as an inducement for the family to make false or misleading statements to the FCRHA
- Residing in the unit with an assisted family
- Committing sexual or other harassment, either quid pro quo or hostile environment, based on the protected classes defined in Chapter 2 that is directed to any applicant or participant or to staff, volunteers, interns or vendors of Fairfax County
- Retaliating against any applicant or participant reporting/alleging sexual or other harassment, either quid pro quo or hostile environment, based on the protected classes defined in Chapter 2 or retaliation against any staff, volunteers, interns or vendors of Fairfax County.

Remedies and Penalties

When the FCRHA determines that the owner has committed program abuse, the FCRHA may take any of the following actions:

- Require the owner to repay excess housing assistance payments, as discussed earlier in this section and in accordance with the policies in Chapter 16.
- Terminate the HAP contract (Reference Chapter 13).
- Bar the owner from future participation in any FCRHA programs.
- Refer the case to state or federal officials for criminal prosecution as described in section 14-II.E.

14-II.D. FCRHA-CAUSED ERRORS OR PROGRAM ABUSE

The responsibilities and expectations of FCRHA staff with respect to normal program administration are discussed throughout this plan. This section specifically addresses actions of a FCRHA staff member that are considered errors or program abuse related to the HCV program. Additional standards of conduct may be provided in the FCRHA personnel policy.

FCRHA-caused incorrect subsidy determinations include:

- Failing to correctly apply HCV rules regarding family composition, income, assets, and expenses;
- Assigning the incorrect voucher size to a family; and
- Errors in calculation.

De Minimis Errors [24 CFR 5.609(c)(4)]

The FCRHA will not be considered out of compliance when making annual income determinations solely due to de minimis errors in calculating family income. Reference 24 CFR 5.609 for the current amount and definition of de minimis errors.

The FCRHA must take corrective action to credit or repay a family if the family was overcharged rent, including when the FCRHA makes de minimis errors in the income determination. Families will not be required to repay the FCRHA in instances where the FCRHA miscalculated income resulting in a family being undercharged for rent. The FCRHA states in its policies how it will repay or credit a family the amount they were overcharged as a result of the FCRHA's de minimis error in income determination.

FCRHA Policy

The FCRHA will correct an overpayment of rent, regardless of whether the overpayment was the result of staff-caused error, staff program abuse, or a de minimis error.

The FCRHA will temporarily decrease the family's portion of rent, retroactive to the date of the error, with additional HAP going to the property owner or landlord. The FCRHA will send a letter to the family and the property owner or landlord prior to the change in payments notifying them of the change and the duration of the change. The FCRHA's letter will communicate to the landlord that they must credit the tenant for the amount of the additional HAP. If the family has vacated the unit, the credit will be mailed or provided to the family within 30 days of the FCRHA becoming aware of the error.

Prohibited Activities

FCRHA Policy

Any of the following will be considered evidence of program abuse by FCRHA staff:

- Failing to comply with any HCV program requirements for personal gain
- Failing to comply with any HCV program requirements as a result of a conflict of interest relationship with any applicant, participant, or owner
- Seeking or accepting anything of material value from applicants, participating families, vendors, owners, contractors, or other persons who provide services or materials to the FCRHA
- Disclosing confidential or proprietary information to outside parties
- Gaining profit as a result of insider knowledge of FCRHA activities, policies, or practices
- Misappropriating or misusing HCV funds
- Destroying, concealing, removing, or inappropriately using any records related to the HCV program
- Committing any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with any federal housing program

14-II.E. CRIMINAL PROSECUTION

FCRHA Policy

When the FCRHA determines that program abuse by an owner, family, or FCRHA staff member has occurred and the amount of overpaid subsidy meets or exceeds the threshold for prosecution under local or state law, the FCRHA will refer the matter to the appropriate entity for prosecution. When the amount of overpaid assistance meets or exceeds the federal threshold, the case will also be referred to the HUD Office of Inspector General (OIG).

Other criminal violations related to the HCV program will be referred to the appropriate local, state, or federal entity.

14-II.F. FRAUD AND PROGRAM ABUSE RECOVERIES

The FCRHA may retain a portion of program fraud losses that the FCRHA recovers from a family or owner through litigation, court order, or a repayment agreement [24 CFR 982.163].

The FCRHA must be the principal party initiating or sustaining the action to recover amounts due from tenants that are due as a result of fraud and abuse. 24 CFR 792.202 permits the FCRHA to retain the greater of:

- 50 percent of the amount it actually collects from a judgment, litigation (including settlement of a lawsuit) or an administrative repayment agreement, or
- Reasonable and necessary costs that the FCRHA incurs related to the collection including costs of investigation, legal fees, and agency collection fees.

The family must be afforded the opportunity for an informal hearing in accordance with requirements in 24 CFR 982.555.

If HUD incurs costs on behalf of the FCRHA related to the collection, these costs must be deducted from the amount retained by the FCRHA.
