Live Healthy Fairfax Award 2022 Nomination Questions

The Live Healthy Fairfax Award's application has four questions. Please allow maximum one page per question.

- 1. Identify which Community Health Improvement Plan (CHIP) 2.0* goal, objective or action is addressed to support a Live Healthy Fairfax Award nomination. A nomination should address at least one CHIP goal, objective or action. Multiple goals, objectives or actions are acceptable.

*For a copy of the CHIP 2.0, please visit www.livehealthyfairfax.gov

2. Why do you think the nominated individual is deserving of Live Healthy Fairfax Award? Identify how the candidate has addressed the judging criteria (see information packet) in support of one of the Partnership for a Healthier Fairfax Teams:

- Behavioral Health,
- Healthy Eating (Fairfax Food Council) or
- Healthy Environment and Active Living

3. Nominators are encouraged to address the following points. Please feel free to include specific examples.

- How the nominee has increased the knowledge of public health
- How the nominee has increased the knowledge the social determinants of health)
- How the nominee has used any innovative or motivational practices that has impacted inclusiveness and/or equity
- How the work is sustainable in the community into the future

For more information on Social Determinants of Health, visit:
<https://www.cdc.gov/socialdeterminants/index.htm>

4. An important aspect of the Live Healthy Fairfax Award is to inspire and teach specific actions, activities, practices, or philosophies for others in the community. Share one specific “teachable moment” that addresses the nominee’s work that best expresses the nominee’s commitment and/or impact on public health.
