

Eligibility Requirements

SACC is available to families who reside in Fairfax County or the City of Fairfax, and serves children in kindergarten through sixth grade, as well as children and youth ages 5 - 21 participating at Key and Kilmer Centers.

Sliding Fee Information and Application

SACC provides a sliding fee scale for families who are income eligible.
If your adjusted annual household income is less than $140,400, you may be eligible for reduced child care fees. Employment is not required for SACC program eligibility.

To apply for reduced fees, please:

- Complete the SACC Sliding Fee Application.
- Indicate Other Income including child support, alimony, Social Security, pension, unemployment benefits, disability, SSA/SSI benefits, etc.
- Indicate Participation in Other Programs - Free or Reduced School Meals, Medicaid, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), Food Stamps (SNAP), Virginia Initiative for Employment and Work (VIEW), Housing Choice Vouchers/ Housing Assistance.
- Indicate Other Circumstances – Experiencing homelessness or residing in a shelter.

Income Assessment Information

- Provide a copy of the most recent pay stub for all adults in the household living together as a family who share income and expenses. Please complete an Employment Verification Form only if you do not receive pay stubs.
- Military Personnel – In addition to basic pay, special allowances such as BAH, BAS, and CMA are considered earned income.
- Unemployed – Please complete the Unemployment Verification Form.
- Self-Employed and Filed Taxes – Please provide 1040, Schedule 1, and Schedule C.
- Return all forms via email to ncssaccregistration@fairfaxcounty.gov or fax to 703-653-1304. Information can also be mailed to the address on the form. Additional information and all forms are available on SACC’s website, Registration | Office for Children \(fairfaxcounty.gov\).
- Additional documentation may be requested.
- Income Recertification - Income recertification must be submitted as changes occur throughout the year. You must notify SACC Registration within 10 business days of any changes in income.
