Deathtrap By Ira Levin	Thursday, Friday and Saturday 7:30 p.m.. October 13 – 28 Sunday Matinees 2:00 p.m. October 15 & 22	*See When for details	In this well-known mystery thriller, Sidney Bruhl, a successful writer of Broadway hits, is struggling to overcome a “dry” spell which has resulted in a series of box office flops. A possible break in his fortunes occurs when he receives a remarkable script from a student which Sidney recognizes immediately as a potential Broadway juggernaut. Sidney’s plan, which he devises with his wife’s help, is to offer assistance to the student in exchange for co-credit. But is that really his plan? Suspense mounts steadily as the plot begins to twist and turn with devilish cleverness, and with such an abundance of thrills and laughter, that audiences will be held enthralled until the final, startling moments of the play. Warning: This play contains moments of violence and gunshots.
Dial M for Murder Adapted by Jeffrey Hatcher From the original by Frederick Knott	Thursday, Friday and Saturday 7:30 p.m.. October 11 – 26 Sunday Matinees 2:00 p.m. October 13 & 20	*See When for details	Greed, fear, jealousy, protecting someone you love. In this classic thriller, all motives for murder are at play! Tony Wendice, who married his wife Margot for her money, now plans to murder her for the same reason. Tony hires a scoundrel he once knew to strangle Margot and arranges a brilliant alibi for himself. But the plan goes awry. Someone does get killed, but who? And who gets blamed for it? In a scene of almost unbearable suspense, the truth is revealed. This new adaptation of the Alfred Hitchcock classic is a must-see!
