

YOUTH RESTORATIVE JUSTICE ENGAGEMENT INITIATIVE

INFORMATION SESSION

May 31, 2025
11 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Sully Community Center
13800 Wall Rd, Herndon, Va 20170

Purpose

The Youth Restorative Justice (RJ) initiative focuses on actively engaging young people in restorative practices by emphasizing peer-to-peer initiatives while fostering a sense of responsibility and community.

Objectives

- Identify a diverse group of youth aged 14-24 who are interested in restorative justice
- Hold consistent meetings with selected youth to develop strategies to inform and involve additional youth in the RJ process
- Create events or initiatives designed to engage more youth in RJ activities
- Empower youth to teach their peers how to facilitate and host restorative circles

Want to get involved?

Youth Commitment

Complete Free Restorative Justice Training

Commit to Monthly Meetings

Outreach to Peers Informing Them of RJ Principles and Benefits

NVMS
CONFLICT RESOLUTION CENTER
TRANSFORMING CONFLICT INTO SUCCESSFUL OUTCOMES

Fairfax County is committed to nondiscrimination on the basis of disability in all county programs, services and activities. Reasonable accommodations made upon request. For information, call 703-324-4600, TTY 711. A Fairfax County, VA publication. April 2025

