Fairfax Falcons Wheelchair Sports & Fitness	Saturdays	9 a.m.-1 p.m.	The County's dynamic team of athletes use wheelchairs to compete in a variety of sports. As a member of BlazeSports America™, the Fairfax Falcons compete in tournaments with players from up and down the East Coast. No worries if you are new to wheelchair sports; there are different skill levels to include all players. The program is open to children with spina bifida, spinal chord injuries, cerebral palsy or an injury affecting their lower extremities. Wheelchair sports offers skill development in many sports including track and field, tennis, basketball and golf. Sports and Fitness is designed for individuals aged 6 to 18 and those 18 to 22 who have not graduated high school. While all our athletes compete in wheelchairs, not all athletes use wheelchairs outside of sports.

Title	When	Time	Description
Death Trap By Ira Levin Directed by Tina Hodge Thronson	Thursday, Friday and Saturday, 7:30 p.m. October 13-28, Sunday Matinees 2 p.m. October 15 and 22	Thursday, Friday and Saturday 7:30 p.m. Sunday Matinees 2 p.m.	In this well-known mystery thriller, Sidney Bruhl, a successful writer of Broadway hits, is struggling to overcome a "dry" spell which has resulted in a series of box office flops. A possible break in his fortunes occurs when he receives a remarkable script from a student which Sidney recognizes immediately as a potential

			Broadway juggernaut. Sidney's plan, which he devises with his wife's help, is to offer assistance to the student in exchange for co-credit. But is that really his plan? Suspense mounts steadily as the plot begins to twist and turn with devilish cleverness, and with such an abundance of thrills and laughter, that audiences will be held enthralled until the final, startling moments of the play. Buy tickets at Providence Players of Fairfax!
