#NCStconnects Virtual Activity

Activity: NCS “MAD LIBS”

Category: Academics

Suggested Grade Level: Grades 3-7

Description: Have fun filling in this NCS “MAD LIBS” and share the silliness with family and friends!

Supplies:
- MAD LIBS sheet (next page)
- Pen or pencil

Instructions: Print the MAD LIBS game on the next page. Fill in each of the blank spaces with the appropriate part of speech (verb, noun or adjective). Word choice is completely up to you, no matter how silly or ridiculous!

Wait to read the story until you’ve filled in all the blanks. Enjoy!
Neighborhood and Community Services MAD LIBS

Hi, I’m _____________________ and I’m _____ years old. I go to the _____________________

(Your Name) (Number) (Adjective)

_______________________________Center. I’ve been going to the center for _____ years, and I really like to _____________ when I’m there. One thing I miss most about the center is the ________________.

(Name of Community/Teen Center) (Number)

(Verb) (Noun)

My favorite memory of the center is when ___________________ and I ___________________,

(Name of Friend) (Verb Past Tense)

and then we ____________________ for hours. If ___________________________ were to ask me

(Verb Past Tense) (Name of Staff Member)

what I’ve been up to while away from the center, I would tell them I’ve been ____________________.

(Verb ending in -ing)

The first thing I will do when I come back to the center is ______________________ with

(Verb)

_______________________________. Until then, I will continue to ______________________ and I might

(Name of Friend or Staff Member) (Verb)

even learn to ___________________, but I’ll keep you posted.

(Verb)