

Ellanor C. Lawrence Park

5040 Walney Rd., Chantilly, VA 20151 • 703-631-0013, www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/ec

Ellanor C. Lawrence Park was established to preserve large areas of open space, protect natural and cultural features and provide a wide variety of recreational opportunities. The 650-acre park is in western Fairfax County.

What You'll See

- Walney Visitor Center
- A converted 1780 farmhouse
- Live animal exhibits
- A children's touch/discovery area
- A playground (off of Route 28)
- A greenhouse
- Middlegate Complex
- Cabell's Mill
- An amphitheater
- Natural and cultural history exhibits
- A pollinator garden
- Walney Pond
- Historic structures and foundations
- Picnic grounds
- Sports fields
- Four miles of hiking trails
- Forests
- Wildlife
- Streams
- Wildflowers
- Meadows

What You'll Do

- Watch birds
- Hike or Jog
- Bike (Only on Walney Creek trail)
- Fish
- Exercise
- Picnic
- Photography
- Play organized sports
- Attend an educational program
- Take a field trip
- Take a guided tour
- Self-guided tours
- Orienteering
- Go on a scavenger hunt
- Learn local history
- Attend summer camp

Special Programs

- Scout and school programs
- Community concerts
- Public campfires
- Wagon rides
- Camps
- Workshops
- Birthday parties