

Huntley Meadows Park

3701 Lockheed Blvd., Alexandria, VA 703-768-2525

www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/huntley-meadows

Huntley Meadows Park is majestic forests, wildflower-speckled meadows and wetlands. Some of the best wildlife watching in the Washington metropolitan area is here.

What you'll see:

- A half-mile wetland boardwalk
- A 50-acre wetland
- An observation tower
- Forest
- Meadows
- Wildflowers
- Beaver, deer and muskrat
- Frogs, snakes and salamanders
- Dragonflies, heron
- 200 confirmed bird species
- Plants that include lizard's tail, cardinal flower and rose mallow
- An auditorium
- A visitor center
- A historic house
- An outdoor educational shelter
- Natural history exhibits
- Cultural history exhibits
- A classroom and gift store
- Photography exhibits

What you'll do:

- Journey the half-mile boardwalk through the wetlands
- Explore interpretive trails
- Bike on the hike-bike trail at the S. Kings Hwy entrance
- Learn birding
- Volunteer
- Host a birthday party
- Walk your leashed dog (not on boardwalks)
- View wildlife from observation towers
- Join a Monday morning bird walk
- Take photographs
- Picnic
- Attend a class
- Attend school, scout or public programs
- Rent the meeting room
- Rent the outdoor classroom
- Shop the gift store

Special Events

- Wetlands Awareness Day
- Watershed Cleanup

Support for the park is through the Friends of Huntley Meadows Park:
www.friendsofhuntleymeadows.org/