Camp and Play Bundles Procedures

Purchase: Camp and Play Bundles are available to be purchased through the FCPA online reservation system. Bundles may be selected and added to all campground reservations. The packages do not include campsite reservations and must be made in addition to a campground reservation. Camp and Play Bundles are only available to registered campers.

Campers may also purchase a bundle at the site at any time during their stay.

After purchase: After completing the purchasing transaction the customers will receive a receipt that includes a link to the Camp and Play Bundles website. Please refer to the Camp and Play Bundles website for more detailed information regarding your purchased package.

At the site: Campers should check in upon arrival and will be issued a physical pass that entitles their party of up to six people to the included benefits of the bundle plan. An information brochure will be available upon request. QR codes will be made available for customers to quickly access the Camp and Play Bundles website where they will find activity descriptions, procedures, rules, and maps.

Redeeming your benefits: Camp and Play Bundles pass holders may want to call in advance to ensure availability and capacity for the time and activity they are interested in. Pass holders should arrive to the facility associated with each activity and check in at the cashier window. The identified service or activity will be processed like a normal transaction and the appropriate discount will be applied to the purchase. Note: some discounts are a one-time discount that cannot be used more than once. These one-time discounts will be marked off the Camp and Play Bundles pass by park staff when users check in for the activity or service. Each pass will expire seven days after the associated campground reservation ends. An expiration date will be noted on the pass and all discounts will expire at 11:59 p.m. of the indicated date.

Expiration: Passes will expire seven days after your reservation ends.

Refunds: Passes are nonrefundable after they are physically issued. Lost or stolen passes will not be eligible for refunds.
