Burke Lake Golf Academy provides outstanding instruction at the Burke Lake Golf Center. We offer classes, camps, clinics, group and private lessons for all ages and skill levels, taught by LPGA, PGA and USGTF professionals.

Choose from a variety of classes that meet weekly. If one of our classes does not fit your schedule, you can book private lessons with one of our talented professionals at a time that's convenient for you. Private and semi-private lesson packages are also available.

Burke Lake Golf Center is an outstanding practice facility with 64 bays (24 heated and covered) on our two-level driving range. The facility also includes two 12,000 square-foot practice greens and a green-side practice bunker for separate putting and short-game instructional areas. Burke Lake Golf Center is the ideal place to work on all aspects of your game before heading out on our 18 hole, par-3 course.

Kate Via

Head Golf Professional Director of Instruction

(703) 300-1844
Kate.Via.lpga@gmail.com

Kate Via's love of golf started when she learned to play the game in her native Scotland. Before arriving at Burke Lake Golf Academy, she served as the head teaching professional at courses in Texas and Kentucky.

As the Director of Instruction at Burke Lake Academy, Kate enjoys teaching individual, couples, and group lessons as well as golf camps. She also works with high school team players and is an expert at finding the perfect equipment that rewards a student's swing. Proper fit to body and swing type is imperative for greater enjoyment of the game and optimizing results.

Kate's credentials include:

- LPGA Class-A Professional since 2005.
- Certified club fitter and Callaway Staff Professional.
- Adjunct Faculty at GMU.
- KPMG Golf Clinics instructor.
- Developed the Northern Virginia chapter of the LPGA/USGA Girls Golf program.
