

RESIDENT CURATOR PROGRAM – ELLMORE FARMHOUSE

October 13, 2018 OPEN HOUSE

OPEN HOUSE SUMMARY

An open house was held at Ellmore Farmhouse on October 13th from noon to 3pm, to provide visitors an opportunity to tour the house and its grounds.

The names of 2 attendees were captured on the sign-in sheet. Also in attendance were:

- David Buchta, FCPA, Heritage Conservation Branch Manager
- Margaret Puglisi, FCPA, Heritage Resource Technician
- Stephanie Langton, FCPA, Resident Curator Program Manager
- Bill Godfrey, FCPA, Historic Property Operations Manager
- Anne Stuntz, Fairfax County History Commission, Chairman

The open house was held to coincide with Frying Pan Park's Fall Harvest Days event.

The Resident Curator Program's stakeholder list gained two new contacts, with a total of about ten visitors throughout the event. Two of the attendees indicated serious interest in submitting an application for curatorship.

Resident Curator Program staff are currently preparing the Invitation to Submit Applications and Application Package for the Ellmore Farmhouse. Subsequently, the application period for Ellmore Farmhouse will be opened and stakeholders will be notified.
