

RESIDENT CURATOR PROGRAM – LAHEY LOST VALLEY

September 8, 2018 OPEN HOUSE

OPEN HOUSE SUMMARY

An open house was held at Lahey Lost Valley on September 8th from noon to 3pm, to provide visitors an opportunity to tour the house and its grounds.

The names of 10 attendees were captured on the sign-in sheet. Also in attendance were:

- David Buchta, FCPA, Heritage Conservation Branch Manager
- Margaret Puglisi, FCPA, Heritage Resource Technician
- Stephanie Langton, FCPA, Resident Curator Program Manager
- Bill Godfrey, FCPA, Historic Property Operations Manager
- Megan Leining, FCPA, Museum Collections Manager

Items from the Park Authority's Lahey Collection were on display throughout the house, including chalkware, tolework, watercolor paintings, and photographs taken during construction of the 1940s brick addition.

Several adjacent neighbors to the park attended the event and spoke with Resident Curator Program staff. Staff encouraged their involvement throughout the process. Overall, neighborhood residents indicated support for the curatorship of the property.

Resident Curator Program staff are preparing the application package for Lahey Lost Valley and will notify stakeholders when the application period is opened.
