Fall Programming at Green Spring Gardens

This Fall Green Spring Gardens will once again offer garden-related programming sure to entice gardeners, those who appreciate beautiful things, and people with a passion for history. The Horticulture Center and Historic House, which have been closed due to the COVID-19 pandemic, will reopen only for scheduled programs and with a limited capacity. In addition, staff has developed several by-request programs, including Choose Your Own Nature Walk, Field Trips for All, and Visits with a Green Spring's Historian. See inside this issue for details on how to request private programs. All indoor classes will be conducted according to Health Department and Centers for Disease Control and Prevention safety guidelines. A mask or face covering is required indoors for individuals ages two (2) and older, and outdoors when physical distancing cannot be maintained.

Garden Gate Plant Shop

The Plant Shop is open for in-person sales Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10am to 1pm. Please wear a mask and observe social distancing. Plant sales are also available through phone order and curbside pick-up. To order by phone for curbside pick-up:
