

- A Special Place -

---

Hello flowers,
Hello trees,
Hello birds,
And hello bees.

Welcome to this special day
Come along
Let's go and play!

Let's lie down on the soft green grass.
Look above and see
The sun is like a campfire roasting marshmallow clouds
And there are piles of yummy cloud cotton candy!

An army of ants comes to join the fun
Let's go and play
Let's run, run, run!

Let's say hello to the warm and beautiful Sun
The birthday party has begun!

Thank you parks,
Thank you, trees,
Thank you birds,
And thank you bees.

You provide shade
And fresh oxygen for you and me
Coming and visiting you,
To work and play
Makes us feel happy and healthy!

What a beautiful place to celebrate,
Fairfax parks are seventy!
Happy Birthday Fairfax Parks!
Hooray!!!
