

PLANNING & DEVELOPMENT

Help Shape the Future of the Government Center Campus!

Changes are being considered to the long-term vision for the Fairfax County Government Center campus, and your voice matters!

The County is reimagining the campus to better serve the community with improved services, public spaces, and access. The existing buildings and open spaces will remain, and the focus is on transforming underused parking lots into vibrant areas where people can gather, live, work, play, and connect with county services and their neighbors.

To guide this effort, we're hosting a Public Open House to share some potential development ideas and hear your feedback. Join us to talk with planners, ask questions, and help shape the vision.
