

Join the Gum Springs Community Meeting!

Wednesday
October 16

6:30-8:30
p.m.

Heritage Resources Study Meeting #2

PLANNING & DEVELOPMENT

Gum Springs Community Center
Gymnasium
8100 Fordson Rd, Alexandria, VA
22306

Fairfax County, in partnership with the New Gum Springs Civic Association and the Gum Springs Historical Society and Museum, is conducting a Heritage Resources Study for the Gum Springs Community, to recognize the history of Gum Springs and identify resources with historical, cultural, architectural, or archaeological significance within the area.

Join the consultants, Commonwealth Preservation Group, the New Gum Springs Civic Association, and the Gum Springs Historical Society and Museum, and your neighbors on Wednesday, October 16 from 6:30-8:30 p.m. at the Gum Springs Community Center to learn about the study, share your knowledge of the neighborhood's history, and ask questions.

Bring photographs, documents, books, and more to be scanned, if you would like to share them with the study. All materials will be returned, and a digital copy may be donated to the Gum Springs Historical Society and Museum to add to their collections.

To request childcare and transportation, please contact Maria Franco-Nativi at 703-704-6700 or email NCSCRCCRegion1@fairfaxcounty.gov by Monday, October 7. To request an interpreter for the meeting, email Sarah.Godfrey@fairfaxcounty.gov or call 703-324-4256 by Wednesday, October 9.

Questions? Contact Laura Kviklys,
Senior Planner, 703.324.6231

To request reasonable ADA accommodations, call 703-324-1334 TTY 711.

Scan the QR code or visit,

<https://bit.ly/44EiX1i>

to learn more.

