Chairman Bennett recognized staff for a presentation on updates to the for-sale workforce dwelling unit, for Policy Plan Amendment 2023-CW-1CP.

Meghan Van Dam, Community Development Assistant Director, Department of Housing and Community Development, introduced herself and gave a presentation on updates to the for-sale workforce dwelling unit, for Policy Plan Amendment 2023-CW-1CP. She added that Graham Owen, Planning Division, Department of Planning and Development would assist with visuals for the presentation. A copy of the staff's presentation is located in the date file.

There was a discussion between Ms. Van Dam; Anna Shapiro, Deputy Director, Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD); Graham Owen, Planning Division (PD), Department of Planning and Development (DPD); Lia Niebauer, PD, DPD; Grace Highman, Homeownership and Relocation Services, DHCD; and multiple Committee members regarding the following:

- Staff clarified that the threshold for affordable dwelling units (ADUs) was the number of units within the development;
- Staff confirmed that single family detached dwelling units located within infill developments were smaller developments that contributed to the housing trust fund;
- Concerns regarding the threshold allowed for the proposed workforce dwelling unit (WDU) policy;
- A discussion on staff's recommendation for WDUs permitted for eight dwelling units per acre developments or greater;
- Staff clarified that the current WDU policy applied to medium and high density developments as a threshold, and the recommendation to allow for eight dwelling units per acre or greater would define the revised policy;
- Concerns regarding options for developers to make monetary contributions towards affordable dwelling units within a development instead of providing the units directly;
- A discussion on the differences between Administrative Policy Guidelines versus the amendment to the Policy Plan for the for-sale workforce dwelling unit program;
- A discussion on the allowance for transferring WDUs between unit types in developments with multiple unit types, the additional analysis conducted, and staff's recommendation regarding the revised policy;

- Staff clarified that some of the concerns with Tysons condo issues for WDUs were related to high-rise developments;
- A discussion on the relationship between condo and homeowner association (HOA) fees;
- A discussion on the task force's and the consultant's recommendation to the County Executive for condo and HOA fees;
- Staff discussed the WDU pricing adjustments for condo and HOA fees and the sales price for WDUs;
- Staff clarified that the condo and fee adjustments would be presented to the County Executive for approval and would not be reviewed by the Planning Commission or the Board of Supervisors;
- A discussion on factors, programs, school facilities, and community centers that would contribute to the increased availability for WDU developments in various areas of the County;
- A discussion on the revised guidance for monetary contributions, specifically the cash out options for the for-sale WDUs being proffered for developments in the Tysons area;
- Staff clarified that the primary bedrooms for WDUs had a minimum of 70 square feet, which would increase to 50 square feet for each additional person, and the living area was approximately 100 square feet;
- A recommendation that the policy be implemented sooner to assist the development community;
- Staff confirmed there was an applicant list that tracked household sizes of families and that list contained a range of households;
- Staff confirmed that, based on the number of applications received for WDUs, the general trend of family sizes did not decrease;
- Staff confirmed that the current bedroom sizes for WDUs were less than 70 square feet and by occupancy standards, could accommodate one person, but were not large enough to accommodate a family;
- Staff confirmed that large families of higher income tiers tried purchasing smaller units and there were no options under the current policy that accommodated that need;
- Staff confirmed there were larger units in the ADU program, which were part of the lower income tier, that accommodated large families;
- Staff confirmed community outreach was extended to the South County Federation and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, but did not receive a response; however, staff continued to provide those groups with information regarding the policy;

- Staff confirmed collaboration with the Department of Neighborhood and Community Services to promote DHCD's public meetings to provide additional outreach to the communities, and to help build strategies that were more inclusive;
- Staff was commended on their recommendations for updates to the language that addressed equity concerns for persons with disabilities; and
- A recommendation that Ventures in Community, a non-profit organization located in Fairfax County, be included in the community outreach plan.

//

Chairman Bennett thanked staff and adjourned the meeting.

WORKFORCE DWELLING UNIT (WDU) PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The For-Sale Workforce Dwelling Unit (WDU) Program is a component of the larger WDU policy and a complement to the required Affordable Dwelling Unit (ADU) program.

WDU program requirements vary by geography and by development type. Although the focus of these recommendations is on the countywide policy, some will address the Tysons non-high-rise policy.

WDU FOR-SALE POLICY TASK FORCE

Representation from development industry, affordable housing providers, and advocates

Add link to report

Primary Challenge: WDUs at higher AMIs are harder to sell:

- Priced close to market-rate units
- Spend longer time on market
- Seller offers incentives

Additional challenges and opportunities impacting marketability and program administration:

- Proportion of family-sized workforce units
- Geographic equity
- Initial & Resale Pricing

POLICY CHALLENGE

Affordability Levels

- WDU's priced at higher AMI levels, especially at 120% AMI, stay on the market for long periods of time and often require price reductions to sell.
- Significant demand for units affordable at or below 80%.

TASK FORCE RECOMMENDATION 1

Optimize Affordability Levels: Shifting the affordability level from a range of up to 80% to 120% AMI to a range of up to 70% to 100% AMI, while retaining the 12% for-sale commitment level.

Task Force:
4% of units at up to 100% AMI
4% of units at up to 80% AMI
4% of units at up to 70% AMI

POLICY CHALLENGE

Bedroom Distribution

- Lack of sufficient family-sized affordable units.
- Proportionality between WDU bedroom mix and market-rate units currently limited to Tysons Urban Center plan

Room Size

- Units may not accommodate families because of small living areas and bedrooms

TASK FORCE RECOMMENDATION 2

Expand guidance on the proportionality of bedroom mix between WDUs and market-rate units, with flexibility for family-sized WDUs, which are defined as any unit with 3 or more bedrooms.

Draft Staff Recommended Additions:

- Add Minimum Bedroom Size
- Add Minimum Living Room Size
- Refine language about transferring unit type (deferred into Admin Guidelines)

POLICY CHALLENGE

Geographic Applicability

- Losing WDU opportunities because of limited geographic applicability
- A separate high-rise condo policy only applies to Tysons Urban Center.

TASK FORCE RECOMMENDATION 3

- Extend the applicability of the WDU program to encompass all areas within Fairfax County that are zoned or planned for medium- to high-density residential (8 dwelling units per acre or greater).
- Do not extend Tysons high-rise condo policy.

Draft Staff Recommendation:

- Extend WDU policy to areas planned for 8 du/ac

FEEDBACK HIGHLIGHTS

In general, attendees gave positive feedback on the information sessions as opportunities to learn about the program, how it functions, and how it is administered.

General support for:

- Shifting in AMI levels from up to 80%-120%AMI to up to 70-100% AMI.
- Expanding the geography, but there were questions about the proposed density threshold and suggestions to increase applicability threshold
- Bedroom mix proportionality between WDUs and market rate, although received a comment on the effect of minimum bedroom and living room sizes on project feasibility.
- Limiting the transfer of WDUs within developments with multiple housing types in concept, but there was concern about the effect on project feasibility. Further analysis over the transfer of units is needed.

Questions on:

- Effective date of policy and impact on submitted applications.
- Timing of Administrative Guidelines revisions.

PLAN AMENDMENT CONSIDERATIONS

- Shift affordability levels from a range of up to 80% to 120% AMI to a range of up to 70% to 100% AMI, while retaining the 12% for-sale commitment level
- Expand guidance on the proportionality of bedroom mix between WDUs and market-rate units, with flexibility for family-sized WDUs
  - Add Minimum Bedroom Size
  - Add Minimum Living Room Size
  - Make consistent in WDU rental program
- Extend WDU policy applicability to areas that are planned for 8 du/ac or greater
  - Make consistent in WDU rental program
- Revise guidance about monetary contributions
- Editorial changes
- Defer revisions to language that suggests allowance for transferring WDUs between unit types in development with multiple unit types, if WDUs are infeasible

Applicable Sections

- Housing and Land Use Element of the Policy Plan
- Glossary to the Comprehensive Plan
- Area Plans (e.g., Tysons, Annandale, Seven Corners, West Falls Church, Reston, Merrifield, Dulles Suburban Center)

CONCLUSIONS

- Better match affordability levels with community needs.
- Reduce carrying cost and the need for sales incentives.
- Improve predictability as shifted affordability levels will better align policy with current practices.
- Pair with process improvements.

Concurrent WDU Administrative Guideline revisions will be prepared for consistency with the Comprehensive Plan changes.

APPENDIX 1: WDU SALES AND RESALE PRICE ADJUSTMENTS

TASK FORCE RECOMMENDATION: WDU PRICING ADJUSTMENTS

Update the WDU pricing model to better reflect affordability for households in Fairfax County.

Findings

- Of WDUs that have sold, 17%* have had to reduce prices.
- Mortgage rates have increased considerably (5.85% to 6.32%+) over the past year.
- Recently built WDUs have average condo and HOA fees of $308. These fees can grow over 3% annually and vary by unit type.

Recommendations

- Reduce assumption on persons per bedroom from 2 to 1.5, aligning with HUD program standards.
- Update pricing calculator to account for:
  - Changes to AMI levels (annually)
  - Current interest rates (as-needed)
  - Tax rate updates (as-needed)
  - Condo/HOA Fee assumptions (as-needed)
- Add homeowner's insurance costs to the pricing model.

Note: Condo and HOA fee data is from Fairfax County HCD;

**11 out of 64 units*

TASK FORCE RECOMMENDATION: WDU PRICING ADJUSTMENTS (CONDO AND HOA FEES)

Create two pricing schedules to better capture the variability in HOA and condo fees across unit types.

Findings

- Condo and HOA structure and fee prices vary significantly across developments.
- Fees for stacked townhomes are often closer to fees for condo flats because they are frequently subject to both condo and HOA fees.
- Townhome fees range from $100-$188 while fees for stacked townhomes and condo flats range from $252-$404.

Recommendations

- Establish two pricing schedules, one with a fee assumption of $0.15 PSF for townhomes and another with an assumption of $0.35 PSF for stacked townhomes and condo flats, applied to minimum unit size requirements.
- For units with fees not within 30% of those estimates, pricing will be based on the actual fee amount.

- Reduce assumption on persons per bedroom from 2 to 1.5, aligning with HUD program standards.
- Update pricing calculator to account for:
  - Changes to AMI levels (annually)
  - Current interest rates (as-needed)
  - Tax rate updates (as-needed)
  - Condo/HOA Fee assumptions (as-needed)
- Add homeowner's insurance costs to the pricing model.
- Establish two pricing schedules with Fee assumption, applied to minimum unit size requirements
  - $0.15 PSF for townhomes
  - $0.35 PSF for stacked townhomes and condo flats.
- For units with fees not within 30% of those estimates, pricing based on the actual fee amount.

TASK FORCE RECOMMENDATION: REFINE RESALE REQUIRMENTS

Tie maximum WDU resale prices to AMI growth rather than CPI as is currently used, better matching prices with what households can afford.

Findings

- Other jurisdictions, such as Washington DC, tie resale prices to AMI changes.
- AMI is more directly correlated with housing affordability than CPI - which is influenced by non-housing pricing changes.

Recommendations

- Tie changes to maximum resale prices to the 5-Year AMI Compound Annual Growth Rate, rather than using the current formula which is tied to CPI.

TASK FORCE RECOMMENDATION: REFINE RESALE REQUIREMENTS

The 5-Year AMI CAGR allows WDU owners to benefit from periods of high growth and offers protection in times of slow growth.

Note: CPI data from Fairfax County HCD; AMI data from HUD

APPENDIX 2: MARKET ANALYSIS WDU PRODUCTION AND SALES

MARKET ASSESSMENT: MEDIAN HOME SALES

The median homes sales price in Fairfax County overall has increased 23% since 2018, with variations by area.

Median Home Sale Price by Year and Geography (2018 - 2023)

MARKET ASSESSMENT: MEDIAN HOUSEHOLD INCOME

Household incomes vary across the County. While there are increases in household incomes are higher in Tysons and Chantilly, they are lower along the Dulles and Richmond Hwy Corridors. In Richmond Hwy specifically, incomes are generally lower for both renters and homeowners.

Source: American Communities Survey, 2011-2021 5-year estimates. 2011 – 2016 Estimates for Tysons utilize different geographic boundaries, as CDP boundaries changed in 2017.

MARKET ASSESSMENT: SUBAREA GEOGRAPHY

In addition to countywide trends, the following section will also highlight characteristics of the following four submarkets.

MARKET ASSESSMENT: MEDIAN RENTER INCOME

The income required to purchase a median priced home has increased by over $100K while median renter incomes increased only $20K.

WDU PROGRAM CHALLENGES: DAYS TO SELL

WDUs priced at 120% AMI and 100% AMI have spent the longest time on the market.

WDU PROGRAM OVERVIEW: SALES

As of April 2023, many higher-priced WDUs, especially those priced at 120% AMI, have not yet sold.

Source: Fairfax County WDU Production Data, April 2023

WDU PRODUCTION v. POLICY

Due to unique proffer agreements, fewer 120% AMI units are being produced or are in the pipeline than are outlined in the Policy and some developments include 70%AMI units.

Existing WDU Program

WDUs Produced

WDUs in the Pipeline

70% AMI 80% AMI 100% AMI 120% AMI

WDU PROGRAM CHALLENGES: SALES INCENTIVES

Longer time on market for units result in high carrying cost for developer. Higher-priced WDUs often require incentives to sell.

Seller incentives include:

- Lower AMI
- Sales price reduction
- Closing cost assistance/ seller credit
- Prepayment of condo fees

CDBG downpayment assistance from the FCRHA is additionally available to buyers with income at or below 80% AMI.

MARKET ASSESSMENT: HOUSING AFFORDABILITY

If the set affordable purchase price does not account for all monthly housing costs, households will not be able to afford housing.

Cost of Home Purchase to Monthly Housing Payment

Note: Size of boxes does not necessarily correspond with percentage of cost.

HOUSING MARKET ASSESSMENT (<80-120% AMI)

For households earning below 100% AMI, options within a households' price range are limited. However, for households earning 100% - 120% AMI, nearly half of all homes sold fall in that price range.

(2020 - 2023)

HOUSING MARKET ASSESSMENT (<80-120% AMI)

All AMI groups have somewhat limited options for three-bedroom or larger units. Households earning under 100% AMI are most constrained and likely competing with higher-income households for these units.

Cumulative Share of Homes with 3+ Bedrooms, Affordable By AMI Levels
(2020 - 2023)

TASK FORCE RECOMMENDATION 1: OPTIMIZE AFFORDABILITY LEVELS (70% AMI)

Align affordability level to reduce competition with market rate units by shifting the program away from the 120% AMI level and include units affordable at or below 70% AMI.

Findings

- Households earning 100-120% AMI have options across different unit sizes and locations within the County.
- 42% of all 120% AMI WDUs have not sold (compared to 12% of 100% AMI WDUs).
- As compared to the affordability mix of the program in practice, including more units at 70% AMI will have a minimal revenue impact.
- There is significant demand for units at 80% AMI and below, suggesting these units will sell quickly and reduce carrying costs.
- Some participating developments already include WDUs priced at 70% AMI.

Recommendations

- Remove the 120% AMI level from the program and serve only households earning up to 100% AMI.
- Expand the program to include units priced up to 70% AMI.
- Building on the previous recommendation to remove 120% AMI units, create a required program unit distribution as follows:
  - 4% of units at up to 100% AMI
  - 4% of units at up to 80% AMI
  - 4% of units at up to 70% AMI

POLICY CHALLENGE: BEDROOM DISTRIBUTION

- Ensure sufficient family-sized affordable units.
- Proportionality between WDU bedroom mix and market-rate units currently limited to Tysons Urban Center plan

Market demand for larger units

TASK FORCE RECOMMENDATION 2: BEDROOM DISTRIBUTION

Adopt proportionality between the bedroom mix of WDUs and that of market-rate units in participating developments, with flexibility for family-sized (3+ BR) WDUs.

Findings

- WDUs in developments primarily consisting of 3-BR units do not significantly impact project feasibility.
- Requiring 5-BR WDUs has a much larger negative impact on revenue.

Recommendations

- Adopt a flexible requirement that the proportion of family-sized WDUs must match the proportion of family-sized market-rate units in a participating development.
- Family-sized WDUs are any units with 3 or more bedrooms, ensuring that larger WDUs are produced without the potential production impacts of strict proportionality.

POLICY CHALLENGE: GEOGRAPHIC APPLICABILITY

- Currently, the WDU for-sale policy applies to development centers.
- A separate high-rise condo policy only applies to Tysons Urban Center.

Legend

- Existing Policy
- Planned for Mid- to High Density

TASK FORCE RECOMMENDATION 3: GEOGRAPHIC APPLICABILITY

Extend the WDU program to encompass all areas within Fairfax County's jurisdiction that are zoned or planned for medium- to high-density residential.

Findings

- Homes within medium- to high-density zones outside the WDU program areas sold for equivalent or higher prices than homes within the program area.
- Medium to high-density zoned and planned sites are primarily adjacent to areas with existing WDU applicability.

Recommendations

- Extend the WDU policy to all areas within the County's jurisdiction zoned or planned for medium- to high-density residential (8 dwelling units per acre or greater).

TASK FORCE RECOMMENDATION 3: GEOGRAPHIC APPLICABILITY – HIGH-RISE

The high-rise policy should not be extended outside of Tysons at this time.

Findings

- Financially feasible high-rise condo prices (~$850 PSF) are currently unsupportable in vast majority of the Fairfax County market.

Recommendations

- The high-rise policy should not be extended outside of Tysons at this time.
- Although there is not value in extending the high-rise policy beyond Tysons at this time, this analysis should be reevaluated in the future.
