Notes/Narratives

On 12-10-15, this unit received information that a bicycle was stolen from Stratford Landing ES on 12-09-15 sometime between 1430 hours and 1600 hours. There was a second bicycle stolen that day as well (case #20153430222). This unit spoke with a counselor over at Stratford Landing ES and stated that the student who stole the second bicycle was, [REDACTED] (7th grader at Sandburg MS).

This unit spoke to [REDACTED] and he admitted to stealing the bicycle. He stated he stole the bicycle because he was tired of walking because his knees hurt. This unit asked [REDACTED] several times for the location of the bicycle. [REDACTED] claimed that the bicycle was in the tree line over at the park on Collingwood Road. [REDACTED] checked the park with negative results.

This unit called [REDACTED] mom on 12-10-15 at 1040 hours and advised her of the situation and possible criminal charges. The victim's family wants to press charges.

This unit contacted TTY and entered the bicycle in NCIC as stolen. This entry was made by operator #304530. The TTY # is 15348-00026.

This report and Intake form was sent to JDC-Intake for processing.
