Notes/Narratives

On 5-13-16, [REDACTED] (7th grader) made the following comment on the school bus in the morning "I have a gun in my bookbag." The bus driver overheard this comment. The bus driver told Security once she arrived at school. The principal called for this unit to search the student. There was no gun in the bookbag, however the student had three cell phones in his possession. This unit then notified [REDACTED] AP of the situation so they could follow-up. During the investigation [REDACTED] stated the first phone (white iphone 5) was his sister's, the second one (silver iphone 6) he found over at Walt Whitman, and the third phone (also a white iphone 5) his mother purchased for him. During the AP's investigation it was discovered that there were several nude photos and other inappropriate videos on two of the phones. [REDACTED] parents were notified and the AP handed the cell phones over to this unit. This unit gave the phone back that belonged to his sister (this was verified). This unit contacted the SRO at Whitman to see if they had any active stolen phone reports. There were no reports so that phone was turned into Apple so they can find the owner of that phone.

This unit contacted [REDACTED] about this case and prosecution was declined. The parents were notified that there are no criminal charges at this time. Mom came to school on 6-16-16 and signed the Electronic Device Return Form and the cell phone was returned to its factory setting. [REDACTED] mom took possession of the cell phone.

Nothing further at this time.
