Notes/Narratives

On 12/3/2016 I was on patrol when checking Carl Sandburg elementary. There, I observed a vehicle appear from behind the school. At first sight, the vehicle turned on and began to leave. I stopped the vehicle and encountered 17 year old [REDACTED]. I asked [REDACTED] why he was at the school on a saturday at approximately 2300 hours. He admitted that he and some friends were smoking weed in the baseball dugout. I had [REDACTED] call his parents to perform an oral counseling. His father, [REDACTED] arrived on scene and was advised. [REDACTED] admitted his wrong doing to myself and his father. [REDACTED] was driven home by his father without incident. [REDACTED] friends were never located. No further action taken. Info copy [REDACTED]
