Board Matter
Early Childhood Education Roundtable

Members of the Board,

I am thrilled to invite the community to join an Early Childhood Education Roundtable on Thursday, May 30th from 7:00 – 8:30 pm. This important conversation will spotlight access to resources, gaps in services, and educational opportunities available for families with children from birth to 5-year-olds.

Joining as panelists are School Board Member Marcia St. John-Cunning, Childcare Provider Monica Jackson of Jackson Child Care, Keisha Dotson of Neighborhood and Community Services, and Lisa Pilson of Fairfax County Public Schools.

During the discussion, we will discuss the challenges our residents face, such as access to affordable quality childcare, awareness of available services, and the ability of early childhood programs to meet families' unique needs. We will also explore Fairfax County's early childhood goals for the coming years.

The roundtable will be streamed live on Channel 16 and my Facebook page. I encourage the community to participate by submitting their questions via email, Facebook Live, or by calling in during the program.

I move, without objection, that the Office of Public Affairs share this information on its channels.
