3rd Annual Scam Jam and Shredfest

Every day, hundreds of local residents lose their hard-earned money to a variety of fraud schemes. In fact, every 2 seconds, a con artist steals someone's identity!

To strike back against scammers, AARP and the Fairfax Silver Shield Task Force are bringing together top experts and law enforcement officials to present at a free informational Scam Jam and Shredfest.

The presenters and exhibitors will discuss scams targeting Virginians, such as fake solicitor schemes, bogus investment deals, lottery scams, email fraud, a grandparent ruse, and the latest identity theft shams.

Keynote Speaker: Susan Hogan

Susan Hogan is the consumer reporter for News4, continuing NBC4's decades-long mission of providing important and impactful information to people in the Washington region.

Program starts at 9:00 a.m. Arrive early to shred your documents, visit with exhibitors, and enjoy light refreshments. Complimentary light refreshments and lunch will be served.

Bring Your Documents to Shred Shredding is a secure way to destroy your documents and prevent misuse. Fairfax County Solid Waste Management Program will have shred trucks on-site from 7:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m.

Search for Unclaimed Property Virginia Treasury's Unclaimed Property Program will be on-site returning money, stocks, bonds, dividends, utility deposits, tangible property and more to the rightful owners.

Safely Dispose of Unused Medications at the Scam Jam Police will be on hand with a Drug Take-Back box.

Fairfax County is committed to nondiscrimination on the basis of disability in all county programs, services and activities. Reasonable accommodations will be provided upon request. For information, call Melissa Smarr, 703-324-1929, TTY 711.
