Any taxpayer aggrieved by an inequality in their assessment, including errors in acreage, as established by the Fairfax County Department of Tax Administration, or who believes their assessment exceeds fair market value or who believes their assessment was not uniformly determined, may apply for relief by filing a properly completed Application for Equalization of Real Property Assessment. Application forms are available by accessing the Internet at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/boe. Rules of Procedure for the BOE are available at the BOE office and on the Web site. Applications may also be obtained by visiting, writing or calling the BOE office at 703-324-4891.

All appeals relating to real estate properties must have been filed at the office of the BOE no later than 4:30 p.m. on June 1, 2021. If the statutory filing deadline (June 1) falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or Fairfax County holiday, the deadline is the following business day. Appeals delivered by U.S. Mail will be accepted if postmarked by midnight of such date.

Respectfully,

Noelle M. Holmes, Chairman
