INSTRUCTIONS TO APPLICANT

The Virginia Constitution generally requires that all property shall be taxed, but state law does provide certain exemptions. The burden of showing that an exemption applies is on the person who seeks an exemption. Exemptions to the property tax are strictly construed. Accordingly, if you seek an exemption, you should be able to show that the property is within an exemption provided by state law. To qualify for exemption, the property must be owned and used by the qualifying entity. In general, vacant land is deemed as not proving use.

If you wish to apply for an exemption to the property tax, please complete all applicable sections of this form and return it to the Department of Tax Administration, Real Estate Division. For questions that cannot be answered within the spaces provided, provide the information on separate pages. You will receive written notification of our decision. All property will remain taxable until our decision is made. If you have any questions, please call 703-222-8234.

PLEASE BE ASSURED THAT THIS INFORMATION WILL BE KEPT STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL, SUBJECT TO CRIMINAL PENALTIES, IN ACCORDANCE WITH TITLE 58.1-3 OF THE CODE OF VIRGINIA.
