

EDUCATION & PREVENTION

5,971 lbs

Medication collected during two Drug Take Back Days and the Fairfax County Police Department (FCPD) permanent drug disposal boxes in 2022

2,223

Students referred to the Fairfax County Public Schools (FCPS) Substance Abuse Prevention Specialists program, plus over 620 presentations for students, families and school staff

EARLY INTERVENTION & TREATMENT

2,000+

People with opioid use disorder who received Fairfax-Falls Church Community Services Board (CSB) assessment and treatment services

594

Clients served by the CSB's Addiction Medicine Clinic

1,464

Inmates at the Adult Detention Center received medication for opioid use disorder

88

Fatal opioid overdoses in 2022

304

Emergency Department visits for heroin and non-heroin opioid overdoses in 2022, an increase of 50.5% since 2019

OPIOIDS IN FAIRFAX HEALTH DISTRICT* (CY 2022)

FAIRFAX COUNTY'S OPIOID AND SUBSTANCE USE TASK FORCE AT A GLANCE

The Task Force uses a collaborative, cross-systems approach to combat the opioid epidemic's impact in Fairfax. The select highlights represent Task Force activities from July 1, 2022 - June 30, 2023, unless otherwise stated.

View the Dashboard:

More data available on the Fairfax Opioid Overdose Dashboard: <https://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/health/opioid-overdoses-data>

CRIMINAL JUSTICE & ENFORCEMENT

62

Drug Court participants since program inception in 2018 (max. enrollment=25; program length = 14 months to 2+ years)

79

Fatal overdose investigations opened in 2022 (decrease of 3 from 2021)

RECOVERY

720

People referred by the Fire and Rescue Department/FCPD to CSB for post-overdose follow-up

800

People served by the HOPE Project

HARM REDUCTION

6,300+

People trained to recognize and reverse overdoses (REVIVE) including nearly 2,500 FCPS staff (total trained through June 30, 2023 = over 11,200)

